I. O. O. F. BENEFIT.

It is neither magic, astrology, witchcraft or prestidigitation, but clean, clear, wholesome enjoyment you will experience at the entertainment of the colonial moving picture company. You can bring your mother your wife, your sister, your daughter your cousins and your aunts—all ages and tastes. The Colonial Moving Picture Company pleases all—offends none.

The Colonial Moving Picture Company projects each subject in a splendid and masterly manner. All who have seen it claim it the grandest exhibition of this kind ever witnessed, complete in every detail.

Plain facts, carefully stated constitute the announcements of the colonial Moving Picture Company. This, combined with a program of work for the work done forms the keystone of the success they have attained. The advertising and display announcements of the Colonial Moving Picture Company do not wholly set forth the merits of this excellent entertainment. Satisfactory reports reach us from several points where the company has appeared.

The Colonial Moving Picture Company and an oriental evening make a beautiful display, which cannot but evoke the keenest enthusiasm, the most spontaneous admiration. They also present attractive and novel specialty acts by high-class artists. It's a long way around Robin Hood's barn, and a walk that may be a good thing for exercise. But the short cut to a delightful evening's pleasure is a visit to the Colonial Moving Picture Company. It is the ideal of perfection sought for.

The Colonial Moving Picture Company and the Oriental evenings, swings jubilantly forward in splendid harmony with the progressive policy in force. Their appearance here will prove a most potent magnet to all admirers of clean and wholesome amusement. The specialty acts, as well as the pictures will prove unmatchable novelties.

If you have found the statements of others at variance with the facts do not consult the announcements of the Colonial Moving Picture Company to the contrary. It is not their intention, nor do they misrepresent. They have a scrupulous regard for the truth. Their advertisements and display announcements do not do full justice to the excellence of the entertainment.

The way the Colonial Moving Picture Company keeps bounding ahead is a fine indication of its great popularity. It possesses more attractive, more infinite change, more dash and originality than any other similar entertainment heretofore seen. These are the unanswerable reasons why it is the foremost picture exhibition.

The above Company will appear under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. lodge in the Grand Opera House, Chatham, one night only, and grand matinee at 4 p. m., sharp, Wednesday, Nov. 12th. Evening prices, 15c, 25c, 35c. Matinee children 10c, adults, 25c, advance sale Central Drug Store.

The highly realistic and successful melodrama, "The Span of Life," will be seen at the Grand Opera House on Thursday night. The story of the play is familiar to the theatregoer. We lay all the scenery of the original production was duplicated, the popular piece will be seen this year with all mechanical effects new. The company is a strong one and contains many well known artists. The famous Donazettas will form the wonderful human bridge.

LOTS OF FUN

Speculators Had Considerable Amusement at the Auction Sale of the Customs Dept.

The customs sale of unclaimed goods created lots of fun for a goodly number Saturday afternoon. It was amusing to see the boys paying good money for packages of advertising matter and opening up their purchases with great expectations to find a lot of little booklets advertising American bicycles. The duty on advertising matter is quite large and, as a consequence, people often refuse to take such packages out of the customs office.

One had paid 25 cents for a package of big posters. When he opened his purchase, he found that he had about two dozen huge placards advertising an American brand of beer. A number of young men bought card-board boxes. Most of these were filled with cotton batting, which was generally used to pack in samples of pills.

There were some large sales. Westman Bros. paid $12 for an oil pump. Mayor Sulman bid in twelve bundles of wall paper for $19. Mr. Harper bought 40 dozen whips for $24. A sample book, belonging to a book agent's outfit, sold for 35 cents. Some advertising matter, on which the duty was $1.40, sold for five cents.

W. H. Harper was dilating on how the law compelled permission to inspect all articles offered for sale. Mayor Sulman put his hand on Chief Holmes' shoulder and remarked, "Yes, and John and I are here to uphold the majesty of the law."

"Exactly," said W. H., "and if anybody is taken in to-day, the Chief will do it."

A bottle of medicine—good for fits and convulsions—sold for 15 cents.

The duty and charges on it were $3.70. A catalogue on which the duty was 45 cents sold for five cents. Cigars by the box sold at from 55 cents to $2.

John Glassford purchased a racing record for 25 cents. The book sells generally at $2.50. It was only five years old and Archie McCoig averred that it would tell how fast a horse would go when five years old.

Augustus Goldberg, a travelling salesman for a New York house, paid $15.00 for a drygoods outfit. John Glassford, his private banker, lent him $2 to make up the purchase money.

An old musty-looking bag of something sold for five cents. The purchaser dropped it down heavily. When John Glassford caught out, took out the dynamite, the crowd scattered promiscuously.

Mr. Ward, Dover Township, bought a set of pulleys for $2.50. An old trunk, full of old looking bed clothes, sold for 35 cents. A pair of old fashioned skates were bought for five cents. A handkerchief and box of writing paper sold for 25 cents. A soldier's uniform was bid up to $148. Rollers for a barn door brought $2. A bicycle sold for $1.75 and a tent for $1.25.

Altogether the sale realized about $186.49. Most of the stuff sold, however, was only trash. Arthur Dunn took in the money from the happy purchasers.

AN EASY WAY

To Keep Well,

It is easy to keep well if we would only observe each day a few simple rules of health.

The all important thing is to keep the stomach right and to do this it is not necessary to diet or to follow a set rule or bill of fare. Such pampering simply makes a capricious appetite and a feeling that certain favorite articles of food must be avoided.

Prof. Wicthold gives pretty good advice on this subject, he says: "I am 68 years old and have never had a serious illness, and at the same time my life has been largely an indoor one, but I early discovered that the way to keep healthy was to keep a healthy stomach, not by eating bran crackers or dieting of any sort; on the contrary I always eat what my appetite craves, but daily for the past eight years I have made it a practice to take two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal and I attribute my robust health for a man of my age to the regular daily use of Stuart's Tablets."

My physician first advised me to use them because he said they were perfectly harmless and were not a secret patent medicine, but contained only the natural digestive, pepsins and diastase, and after using them a few weeks I have never ceased to thank him for his advice.

I honestly believe the habit of taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals is the real health habit because their use brings health to the sick and aid and preserves health to the well and strong.

Men and women past fifty years of age need a safe digestive after meals to insure a perfect digestion and to ward off disease, and the safest, best known and most widely used is Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

They are found in every well regulated household from Maine to California and in Great Britain and Australia are rapidly pushing their way into popular favor.

All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, full sized pkgs. at 50 cents, and for a week stomach a fifty cent package will often do fifty dollars' worth of good.

WORLD OF SPORT

FOOTBALL

By winning Saturday's game at Wallaceburg Darrell again assumes the top notch in the eastern division of the Peninsula League, giving Darrell such a lead over the Chatham team that the latter will have to win the game at Darrell next Saturday, and if they do so, will have to win the extra game in order to win out in this division.

The Chatham team without a doubt will have to practice and practice hard with every player in his correct position.

Darrell on their part will have out their strongest and best team of players and will put up the fight of their lives in order to come out on top in this section. Their line-up will practically be the same as when they played in Chatham. Gregory, who was not in the game at Wallaceburg Saturday, will be in it next Saturday.

The Chatham line-up for Saturday has not been decided yet, but the team will be materially strengthened.

Darrell 2, Burg 0.

Darrell played at Wallaceburg on Saturday and defeated the home team by a score of two goals to nil. The game was very slow from the spectators' standpoint, but the players seemed to be able to keep warm.

The ball was very poorly blown up, and made it hard kicking.

The game started off with Darrell (having won the toss) rushing the Wallaceburg defence, but without success, and the ball was started toward the other end, only to return again after a few minutes' play.

All that was doing in the first half was down at the Wallaceburg end, and, in fact, all the scoring was done in the first half. Abram scored the first goal after some good combination work on the part of the forward line.

Fisher, who was playing centre forward, scored the second goal in a scrimmage at the mouth of the "Burg" goal.

The second half was a very even contest with honors about divided. Each side had a penalty kick in the last half, but could not score.

Johnson, a young Wallaceburger who played goal for the home team, put up a star game, making many hard stops. Jackson, at full back, played a phenomenal game and was admirable for the stopping of many rushes.

The Wallaceburg team was not as strong as when Chatham played there. Stevens, Boulton, Woolver and Faldsted all defense men, were not playing on Saturday. The Wallaceburg forward line, however, were in good condition. Benny, as usually, put up a fast game, and some scoring would have been done had not Darrell's defence been so strong, with Pettipiece, Asher and McNaughton on half back, and A. Pugh and Dick at full back. Jones and Roy Abram, as usual, played an excellent game on the forward line.

Referee Dr. Aeger, of Dover Centre, gave perfect satisfaction. Only a couple of disputes occurred and these were amicably settled. The attendance at the game was small. The line-up was as follows:

DARRELL.

Goal—Harry French.
Backs—A. Pugh, Dick.
Half Backs—Asher, McNaughton, Pettipiece.

Right Wing—F. Pugh, R. Abram, Centre, J. Fisher.

WALLACEBURG.
Goal—Johnson.
Backs—Johnson, Jackson.
Half Backs—Fisher, McCosh and Hunter.

Right Wing—Bennie, Knight.
Centre—Boughman.
Left Wing—Taylor, McConnell, R. Aeger.
Goal Umpires—J. Gregory and Harry Boulton.

Line men—Griffith and West. Time Keeper—Les Gregory.
