Letters to the Editor.

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN:

SIR:—May I through your columns say a word to those, and they are few, who violate the Health Act. There are those who keep pigs in the town without a permit from the Town Council. For some time past the Council have not granted permits to keep pigs in an area comprising the centre of the town. Yet some are doing so.

A large amount of money is being expended in the town to pave the streets. The Council of last year and this have wisely concluded by making improved streets that the town will be greatly benefited commercially and sanitarially. That will have a clean town by having less dust and the latter easier controlled. Dust and dirt are known to be the carriers of disease. Keeping pigs in manure pens is a breeder and disseminator of flies. The town of Wolfville is a clean town; as towns go; but we propose to make it the cleanest of towns. A word to the wise is sufficient. Those who keep pigs where they have not a right to do so kindly take notice and be governed accordingly.

G. E. DeWitt, M. D. H.

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN:

DEAR SIR:—The question of where the Titanic is dragged along week after week creating valuable space in your paper.

For my part I can see no sense in such discussions. The people who went down in her are dead, no matter whether she lies on the bottom of the Atlantic or is only a few fathoms below the surface.

Why not let the dead rest in peace? I am surprised that Mr. Burgess Bishop is mixing in such a non-sensical discussion. There are many live questions that might claim his attention. Now that Reciprocity is dead and buried and the Abolition is in cold storage until the next local election, he should give us something more useful.

How to exterminate caterpillars or the best methods of raising turnips would be much more appreciated by a suffering people. HAYWARD.

ANNUAL ROOFING.—Best on the market, sand surface, needs no painting. Good for 30 years. Sold by D. A. MORRIS, Wolfville.

Suit Over Nova Scotia Appeals.

A lawsuit that will cause keen interest among apple growers and shippers in the Annapolis Valley will come before the supreme court at the approaching session in Bridgetown. H. D. Starratt, of Paradise, made a contract with Laing Bros., of Wainwright, to supply and ship 20,000 barrels of apples. These were to go forward in three car lots each day or two. A few shipments were made by the Dominion Atlantic Railway Company, after which, it is alleged, cars were not supplied according to agreement. The apples were eventually shipped to England, at a loss, it is contended, of $50,000.

Patrons are respectfully requested to place their orders early so there may be no distressing disappointments when the busy season begins. BOATH & Co.

Right in price, right in style, right in quality. Satisfaction goes with every order placed with us. BOATH & Co.
