THE LATE MISS ELLIOTT. -- It is with feel-obitnary column of Thursays in Relacions the death of Miss Liliott, sister of George Elliott, Esq., for many years a resident of Guelph, living with her brother. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott were on their way to spend the winter in the Southern Sitates but were recalled in consequence of Miss Elliotts alines, and arrived here about ten days ago, a return which has ended so mounfully, and in which we feel they have the sympathy of their friends and the public to whom they are so well known. Miss Elliott lived a quiet unobstrusive, retired life. She took the greatest interest in all the Hospital. Her heart and purse were always open to every demand for these objects, and the poor and needy were never turned eupty away. Many will miss her friendship, and the needy the assistance she gave them, which none know but the rectipients. She was an attached member of the church of England, and her end was peace.

The Mayor respondes that the regretted that there were not more of the buyers present, attributing the cases to the fact that several of them had to entertail company at home, and a few were absent, and also that some present were there under personal sacribe. He then referred to the inadequate market accommodation. It would be a good thing for the buyers to meet, discuss the percentage of the Council.

Md. Hewer remarked that it was an injustice to tax a man ken cental for bringing a small quantity of stuff to the market on a double team, while a man that had a heavy load was only charged the same price—that is to say if a man brought a hide, or a basket of butter in a double team he was charged ten cental, which farmers justly complained of as an injustice. If he was returned he would endeavor to make alterations in the bylaw to do away with grievances.

Ex Ald. Carter remarked that this was the first gathering the buyers had had for many years. It was most enjoyable and how as satisfied a good deal of good would accrue from it. He suggested that is few inches of gravel should be filled in in low pleces on the square, and thus provent people from being compelled to wade ankile deep in mud during a wet spell; also that $50 a year out of the market is about the soft season in the honorie was so short preventing buyers who had made previous engagements from being present.
