The Best Boots for Boys

OUTFIT the boy with Palmer-McLellan Patent Farm Boots and he will have footwear that will stand the most strenuous wear, in all kinds of weather, outlasting two pairs of ordinary boots, and will not rip or lose their shape.

We own exclusively the patents on these boots. They are made from heavy Palmer-McLellan Chromol tanned leather, shaped on right and left lasts, and fitted with strong counters to support the heels. The soles are nailed on by improved machine method. These boots have all the foot-fitting comforts of a real moccasin, but will hold their shape and outwear footwear of much heavier construction for they are all solid leather.

Ask your dealer to allow you Palmer-McLellan Farm Boots in their many styles and shapes, or write PALMER-MCLELLAN SHOEMAKE CO., LIMITED, FREDERICTON, N.S.

PAY OF STENOGRAPHERS.

To the Editor of The Gleaner, Sir.—Having worked as a stenographer more years than I care to own up to, I feel I am qualified to say a few words on the subject of stenographers, the requirements and the pay. I cannot see why most positions actually require a college education or the equivalent of it. I have known hundreds of stenographers and do not recall one who had a college education. In fact, most employers would be deeply grateful to obtain one with a very good working knowledge of the "three R's." I am now employed by a corporation employing several stenographers, the minimum salary of which is $15 a week, and sometimes when I see the work turned out by them I feel that the company is getting very little for its money.

Most of our girls live at home, which largely solves the question of the H. C. L. But I do feel a deep sympathy for a stenographer or any other woman employed at a moderate wage who has to live independently of family assistance in these days of high prices. To live independently means that she must, in the plainest way, will eat up a large salary, which is only another way of saying that those working for moderate pay are living in a miserably, in cold rooms, with poor food, lack of amusements and of many other things which make life worth while.

Both employers and employees are having great difficulties just now. These difficulties are not easy to remedy, but better day will come.

Yours, STENOGRAPHER. St. Stephen, April 23, 1920.

INFLUENCING THE VOTE.

To the Editor of The Gleaner, Sir.—I hear that the New Brunswick Temperance Alliance is trying to get clerical men "marshalled" in full force in the front seats of the gallery of the House of Assembly on Friday—armed, with threatening pencils and writing pads—while their bone dry resolution was under consideration. The manifest purpose was to scare the weaklings among the members of the House to vote as they had commanded.

Although such an exhibition, must have been disgusting to any man with any sense of propriety or dignity who witnessed it, it is said that it actually succeeded in convincing three or four of the jelly fish against whom it was specially directed and who an hour or two before, it is said, had been talking privately against the scheme of the righteous brethren to mix up the Dominion with the Provincial referendum.

The province is to be congratulated, however, on the fact that a majority of the members of the Legislature are neither cowards nor hypocrites, and stand foursquare against this latest attempt of a small coterie of audacious intruders, who pose as representatives of the Protestant churches, to establish their will as the law of New Brunswick. In disregard of the convictions of the duly elected representatives of the people.

All honor to the men who refused to surrender their own convictions and consciences and to betray the personal and the liberties of all the people they represent at the command of these insolent and short-sighted initiators of Yankee fanatical methods.

If it is well that the names of these men have been recorded. They are men whom no broadside of pulpit or platform can ever successfully defend, men who will always be able to declare in the presence of their fellow men, "We are at least neither cowards nor hypocrites." As for the others—their names, too, are recorded—it is best that nothing should be said which might cast upon them any greater stain than that which they are no doubt already suffering and will forever continue to suffer from the revelation of the fact that they have lost not only the respect of their fellow men, but that of the people they represent.

This, of course, applies not to those members who were sincere in their votes, but to those who were not. Most people in the different counties, I have no doubt, will be able to distinguish them.

Yours, OBSERVER. Fredericton, April 26, 1920.

PREVENT ADULTERATION.

To the Editor of The Gleaner, Sir.—The "profiteer" who is universally condemned as a most unnatural being, is saddled with all the odium attached to the means of getting his desired "profits." There is one particular crime with which he is charged, and that one is the adulteration of the people's food. Now, want to ask these so-called "leaders of the workers" if it never "strikes" (familiar word are "strikes") them that although the "capitalist profiteer" orders the foods, it is the "worker" who puts the rotten stuff in!

Let these trade union organizers instruct their members to refuse to put the "rotten stuff" in. The capitalist did not put it in himself. If the capitalist manufacturer ordered a faulty piece of machinery to be put into a railway engine, the mechanic would refuse, as the crime would be his if any lives were lost through his act. This should strike every other trade in a similar manner.

People who are being crushed between the two parties are sick of hearing hard words being flung all the time and are anxiously waiting for some solution to the dispute. Let the "worker" refuse to mix "substance" in his part of the job and we shall have the capitalist supplying the genuine.

Yours, SOUND GOODS. Fredericton, N. B., April 26, 1920.

HOMELY GIRL THE BEST.

To the Editor of The Gleaner, Sir.—I would appreciate it very much if you would allow me space enough in the "From the People" column to answer, "Why Do Homely Girls Win?" I am a man that has knocked around a good deal and met girls of all classes, and I have always found homely girls had the nicest ways. I always found that a pretty girl had overbearing ways with them and they always put on too much style. Me for the homely girl, for beauty is only skin deep.

Yours, ONE INTERESTED. Westfield, Me., April 23, 1920.

MARRY AND BE HAPPY.

To the Editor of The Gleaner, Sir.—In reply to letter in your paper of 22nd inst., under heading of From the People, Column, "Family About the Neck."

Since you have reached the age of 21 and for the past seven years have been practically the head of the house, I don't see why you are not at liberty to do as you wish without the consent of anyone; and when it is spite work of others to break your wish, I say do as you wish. Marry and take your mother with you, and if this she objects to, give her all she can make a home of your own, which you will far more appreciate, with less care. When you have kept a house for a family for so long, you can make a home for yourself on less, and at the same time not see your mother dejected.

Yours, A SYMPATHIZER. McAdam Jet, N. B., April 24, 1920.
