1899 Woolen Mills1899

I have much pleasure in announcing to my customers and the general public that I will make them my annual call with a full line of goods from the above mills which will consist of

YARNS, SHIRTINGS, FLANNELS, BLANKETING, RUGGING, HOME-SPUNS, TWEEDS, OVERCOAT-

INGS, AND DRESS GOODS. These goods need no introduction to you as for the past ten years I have called upon you. You have seen that great improvements have been made each year in the style, coloring and finish and this year is no exception. I am confident that I can offer you goods not excelled by any mill in the maritime provinces, and as this will be the last season I will call on you in this century I trust you will continue to give methe past and assist me to make my sales the largest of any year I have had the pleasure of dealing with you. I am,

Humorous.

Their Dissatisfaction.

A young clerk in an office on Fifth-ave. lately became very much dissatisfied with his position, and, as a consequence, his employer became dissatisfied with him. So it happened that each inserted an advertisement in a daily paper and each wrote in response to each other's expressed want. It happened also that they sat near each other in the office and received their answers simultaneously. This is what the employer read: "Sir: I am competent, faithful and a hustler. I desire to change because my man is a rational animal who thinks and No one about to use them now present employer is unreasonable and un- reasons. A brute is an irrational animal appreciative."

This is what the young man read: brains and "get up" to him. Call at piness like an angel, he does not live and nomentities wanted." Then the explosion occurred News.
