SAVORY ROASTER.

Our many customers who had the pleasure of examining and trying our sample of this very useful household article will be pleased to hear that we have just received a shipment, so that all orders can now be filled. What is a Savory Roaster? It is such a good thing that it must be seen to be properly understood. A Savory Roaster is a Pan for roasting meat; but it is more than this, it is a self baster. No torment or burning your fingers removing it from oven to baste the meat. You simply place your roast of meat in the roaster, close the pan—trouble no more about it until it is cooked. The meat is really steamed all through. None of the nutritious properties of the meat can escape. It is a marvel and the price is within the reach of everybody. $1.50.

Zam-Buk in the Home.

Read How Useful It Proved in These Widely Different Cases.

Zam-Buk's strongest point is its effectiveness in all kinds of skin diseases and injuries. Just note how excellent these persons proved it in widely different directions.

Sore Heel.—Mrs. C. A. Campbell, of Powassan, Ont., writes: "One of my heels was very badly blistered by a pair of new shoes, and the poisonous dye from my stocking got into it, and made a bad sore. For a week I could not put on a shoe, and suffered great pain. I applied Zam-Buk, and in a few days it drew the poison out and healed the wound."

Bad Cut.—Mrs. J. Virgint, of Onondaga, Ont., writes: "Zam-Buk healed a bad cut which I sustained. I was hurrying across my yard one day when I slipped and fell heavily, my knee striking a sharp stone. At the moment I did not realize how badly I was hurt, but I found I had a bad cut about two inches long, very jagged and very deep. We bathed the cut and applied Zam-Buk. This stopped the smarting very quickly, and in a few days it had healed the wound completely. For cuts and bruises Zam-Buk is a splendid remedy."

Eczema Cured.—Mrs. Antoine Arsenault, of Maxamville, P.E.I., writes: "I can highly recommend Zam-Buk to any person suffering from eczema. I had this disease, and was under doctors' treatment for two years, without any good result. I then tried Zam-Buk and in the end it cured me."

Zam-Buk is just as good for piles, blood-poison, festering sores, pimples, eruptions, cuts, burns, bruises, 50c box all drugists and stores, or post free for price from Zam-Buk Co., St. John's, Nfld. Try Zam-Buk Sosp, 25c. tablet.

92 Years Old, 2 Meals a Day.

London, Oct. 28.—Leslie Fraser Duncan, ninety-two, four times a widower, the tallest Scotchman in London—6 feet six inches in his socks—gets up at noon every day, and his inviolable diet is as follows:

1 p.m. (Breakfast)—Three boiled eggs, tea and three thin slices of bread and butter.

2 p.m.—Glass of milk.

4 p.m.—Glass of milk.

5 p.m.—Tea, one boiled egg, and thin bread and butter.

8 p.m. (Dinner)—One boiled egg and thin bread and butter.

Mr. Duncan has a flowing white beard and a face glowing with health and he expects to pass the century mark. He was born in Elgin, Scotland and when he was five years old he began to walk six miles to school and six miles back home every day. In this way he walked 440,000 miles in his schooling. He did it all on two meals a day. His breakfast at 8 a.m., was porridge or brose. In 1848 he settled in London, and all through a busy career of fifty years he worked twelve and fifteen hours a day, on 2 meals a day, with no holidays. He never smoked in his life except one year in Edinburgh.

His alcoholic indulgence consisted of four glasses of champagne a year—one each on his birthday, on his mother's birthday, on Christmas and on New Year. He has never used a telephone, and he retired from business with a fortune, twenty-five years ago, before the rush of modern commercial life was fairly begun.

Mr. Duncan's fourth wife, who died a month ago, was the widow of Whyte Melville, the novelist. He went to school as a boy with Lord Strathcona, now High Commissioner of Canada, in London, who is two years older and who also lives on two meals a day.

"Cashiering" and Mars.

Recently an Army lieutenant was cashiered for "conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman," in connection with betting transactions. Cashiering, a term derived from a Dutch word meaning to make void or empty, may be described as moral bankruptcy.

In the old days a cashiered officer was paraded before his brother officers, his sword was broken in two and he was stripped of his badges and ornaments of rank. Nowadays he is usually spared this crowning humiliation. An officer can be cashiered by sentence of general court-martial only, and the sentence, as a rule, is personally confirmed by the Sovereign. On the other hand, the Sovereign has the power at any time to dismiss or remove an officer from the Army without trial.

There is a wide difference in the after-effects of cashiering and dismissal. A cashiered officer may never again serve the Crown in any public capacity; but dismissal, though a stigma, does not debar a man from rehabilitating himself and again serving his King and country. In the ranks the equivalent of cashiering is "discharge with disgrace."

Cable News.

Special to Evening Telegram.
NEW, York, Nov. 4.
The Evening Sun concedes the election to Mitchell for Mayor, and Tammany has suffered a severe setback if not a rout. Sultzer, it is conceded, has been elected Assemblyman for the sixth district. The Mail claims the election of Mitchell by over seventy-five thousand.

BELFAST, Nov. 4.
The resolution to pay no taxes under the Irish Home Rule Parliament and make the Government under its rule impossible by unfinishing and continuous obstruction of the law, was passed here to-day at a demonstration of 6,000 business men, including representatives of leading firms with an aggregate capital of upwards of sixty million dollars.

LONDON, Nov. 4.
The militant branch of the suffragette organization is raising an army in the East End of London to force the Government to yield to the demands of the women. Sylvia Pankhurst announced at a meeting at Bow Street last evening. She said the army will be under the command of Sir Francis Vane Bart, who was Captain of the 3rd Royal Lancashire regiment in the Boer war, and who will have several army officers to assist him. It is no joke, she added; we are absolutely in earnest. As soon as our army is trained we shall get the same treatment as Carson and the Orangemen, and the Government will come to us offering us the vote.

After the Season

The baseball season's ended, the pennant has been won, the work of pitchers splendid, and catches, too, is done; the grandstand is deserted, the yelling crowds are fed; the umpire, sorely hurtled, has gone to boil his head. And now those sturdy fighters who played "the only game," will cut swath as writers and put a clinch on frame. The boys who stumble greatly when asked to spell their names, will write the English stately of Addison of James. The boys who don't know grammar from seven sacks of beans, will hear the public clamor, and write for magazines. The miracle stupendous, the marvel of the age, it is how they can lend us their thoughts on printed page! There's Pankhurst, the pitcher; in summer he's a gent who makes the language richer with "I have seen and went." In wintertime he grinds us a polished kind of dope, and oftentimes reminds us of Laurence Sterne of Pope. When Springtime's pinions flutter, the diamond he will seek; and we shall hear him mutter: "I think them words is Greek."

Cured Diseases of the Kidneys

Once Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are introduced into the family and their efficiency becomes known they are usually found too valuable to do without. For everyday ailments arising from liver and bowel disorders they bring relief promptly, and when complicated diseases of the kidneys and liver develop they often prove a successful cure after doctors have failed. As an illustration, you may read the following, which was received a few days ago:

Mrs. John Wright, 58 McGee street, Toronto, Ont., states: "We have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for ten years, and would not be without them. My husband suffered from kidney trouble, and after taking treatment from several doctors without receiving any benefit, tried Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, which worked a complete cure. Since that time we have used them for all stomach and liver disorders."

"Syrup of Figs for Constipated Child

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little stomach, liver and bowels.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful to-day saves a sick child to-morrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."
