

From TOOTON'S, THE KODAK STORE,

304 Water Street.

"Which do you as this imponderable quality can be

Different friends answer to differ measured.

all " I asked the Authorman after ent moods in one's nature. There is a group of the friend with whom one can talk been visiting us had gone. "Oh. said. "I would what's the use

like best of them

A typically masculine answer, I sus-than Authorman had. One thes different kinds in differ-

Each Frient Fits a Different Mood.

stance—are there not days when you feel like writing to some particular friend? You can sit down and pour as you might find it hard to write to abstract ideas: there is the friend with whom one can go off on a trip couldn't tell. And which one likes best, that is al- of one of them. (This bridge, no doubt. most impossible to do. Not Justifiable. It is perfectly right and natural pect. For I think most men hate that that we should feel this way. But pleasant memories of same.) It seems kind of weighing and measuring, and there is an extension of this feeling which is natural enough perhaps, but unbeautiful. And that is the way for over myself, I found that I some people have of turning from quite shaky—one of the boys remarkcou 't say anything more definite one friend to another whenever the first friend fails to act as a mirror. showing them to themselves in exactent way, and for different things, and ly the light in which they wish to anything they do, let him fail to min-that is no way to treat friendship. like him or her just as much, so far friends my asylum."

Why Unlucky

How many people would be willing to acknowledge that they believe it is bad luck to return, after leaving the house, for something they have forgotten? Some popular superstitions can be explained psychologically-and this is one of them. The psychologists agree as to the bad luck part of it, but say that the bad luck consists not so much This shows that you do not keep your handle. THE WHITE CLOTHmind sufficiently upon the details of what you are about. Having to go back ING MFG. CO., LTD.—jne27,tf for that letter or package you were to concentration of the mind on immedilucky." Things will appear to go wrong fact that you went back after your umbrella; whereas the truth is that your mind is not functioning properly.

We have many testimonials from Wholesalers stating that the forgetting of it in the first place. is the most saleable line they Callard & Bowser's Butter Scotch.

NOUGAT, ALMOND ROCK, TURKISH-DE-LIGHT—Just received.

BUTTER SCOTCH from .....5c. up PURE COCOA, in bulk, only 20c. lb. MALT BREAKFAST FOOD. DANISH THICK CREAM—Large tins. NESTLE'S THICK CREAM—Small and large

FINEST LEGHORN CANDIED CITRON EXTRA BIGARREAUX CHERRIES for cake

making. LEMON CRYSTALS by the lb.
LEMON CRYSTALS, 2 oz. boxes.
CHASE & SANBORN'S "SEAL" BRAND
COFFEE, 1/2 lb. and 1 lb. tins. PINTS LIME JUICE, 24c. each. FRESH CUCUMBERS, FRESH EGGS. FRESH GRAPE FRUIT, ETC.

C. P. EAGAN, Duckworth Street & Queen's Road

Harbor Grace Notes.

Mr. R. W. Strong arrived in town Saturday night's train on a short risit, returning again yesterday to the Schooner Winnifred, Captain E. T. obbs, went on dock on the 15th inst. and came off again yesterday, after having some painting done. The tug Hugh D. arrived in port at dinner our the same day and towed the chooner to St. John's. Capt. George umsey of St. John's was here super-

Mr. Allan Parsons, who was undergoing treatment at the General Hospital, St. John's, came to town by Saturday night's train and spent Sunday at his home. He returned again to the city by yesterday afternoon's train, as his treatment is not completed. We are all pleased to know he has benefited considerably since his stay in the Institution

The motor boat Zelda B. arrived from Bell Island on Friday night, bringing several in to spend the week-end here. She returned again Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. John Gordon and Wm. Tapp vere passengers by Friday afternoon's rain, having arrived by S.S. Rosalind rom Halifax to St. John's the day previous. They will spend a few weeks visiting their homes. All are pleased to see them in the old town again and trust their stay will be very Schooner Lucid arrived in port yesterday and went on dock this morning o undergo repairs.

Mr. H. Ford of Heart's Content, spent a holiday here with his uncle, friends who had of books and literary interests and Mr. T. G. Ford, (H.M.C.), and friends.

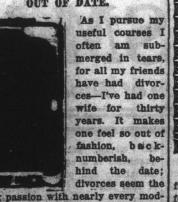

On Sunday night last about 8.30 I don't know," he and chat of simple things and be o'clock four young lads belonging to foolish and gay for a day; there is the Bear's Cove, who while seated upon, friend who has the same business in- or leaning against, what is commonly terests as oneself. One likes them known as "The Bridge," met with an then I probably all. But when it comes to saying accident, which almost ended the life is quite familiar to all who have had the pleasure of visiting our town, especially lovers, who very likely hold they had been resting there for some time, and noticing that the rails did or words to that effect. However, scarcely had the words been attered when the rails gave way, falling into appear. Let a friend disapprove of the ditch beneath—which is usually filled with water, excepting in the dry ister to their vanity in any way, and season. The bottom is covered with Of course down deep, one always straightway they rush off to the next rocks and small boulders. Three of loves all one's true friends, but there friend, justifying themselves and comare certainly times and moods when one enjoys one more than the other.

Take your Letter Friends, for instance—are there not days when you that is no way to treat friendship. that he could not prevent himself from In the words of Emerson, "If I have falling, and when the rails crashed, shrunk unequal from one contest in- after turning a somersault, he was stantly the joy I find in all the rest dashed to the chasm beneath, inflictbecomes mean and cowardly. I should ing thereby a severe wound in the some other friend, even though you hate myself if I then made my other head and rendering him unconscious. He was picked up and taken into a neighbour's house, who did all possible to alleviate his sufferings, while take with you is a symptom of lack of Dr. Cron was being rushed for, who arrived in a short time and dressed ate matters. Lack of concentration on the lad's wounds, having to put sev-"the instant need of things" is "unconveyed by the Doctor's car to his all day, and you will attribute it to the home, and yesterday was reported to be doing fairly well. We trust he has not sustained any internal injury and that his recovery will be speedy. This accident occurred just after the different congregations were coming from church, consequently quite a number gathered around the scene in the going back for the article as in VICTORY BRAND CLOTHING and several also were present and

> During the last few weeks the Road Board has certainly done a great deal to the building up of the rails along the waterfront, and we hope they will "not grow weary in well doing," and not forget that the East End of the town needs their attention also, as this incident easily shows.

CORRESPONDENT. Hr. Grace, July 19, 1921.

OUT OF DATE. As I pursue my years. It makes one feel so out of fashion, backnumberish, for divorces they went gunning, and shook off Jane or Kate or Nell. But ed together adown the slope of life's then I light another stogie, and to long hill, encountered every kind of Jemima thus I speak, "I'd rather be weather, and every brand of good and a mossback fogy than have a new wife of the West, few have excited wider screw," and bones of a small car ill. And as we thus pursued our every week." And she replies, "You're journey the marriage lines were never oft annoying, you try my patience much, my dear, but I would find it to see just what divorce would cost. rather cloying to be a bride nine times binding, in every chapter, every verse and even if results were grinding, it was for better or for worse. The vow we made beneath the steeple is an agood tonic, named "Brick's was for better or for worse. The vow we made beneath the steeple is an a good tonic, named a good tonic, named Tasteless". Price $1.00; pr nany twists and turns, ending at plaster of paris, showed an int imes in a large bulb, with occasional failed to reveal any trace of plant structure. Later the skeleton of an Of the many fossils which have animal like the badger was found in a come out of the mountains and plains large bulb near the end of the "corkfound in rock of the Miocene period, After that is was discovered that many of them contained bones of a gainst the bluff background of the size of the western prairie dog. Exining a length of fifteen feet, with burrows, after filling them with thin

Fashions and Fads

Smart wraps in navy blue ar Dresses of linen are usuall

SLAUGHTER SALE

Women's White BOOTS & SHOES

To-day we start a Great Clearance Sale of Women's White Shoes and Boots. It will be a Full Speed Sale from the word go!

No Culled Over stock but a Sale of White Footwear for Women. We always clean up one Season's Stock of White Shoes before the opening of another Season! That's the Whole Story and the reason why you can buy White Shoes at the Very Low Prices we mention below.

It will pay you exceedingly well to anticipate your future wants and

Buy Your White Footwear Now!

Women's White Canvas Boots

High-Cut Laced Spool Heel

Regular $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00 values

Reduced to $2.00 the pr.

All sizes in this lot.

MEN

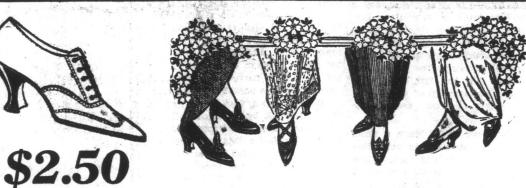

BOYS' I light these day, EMBRO blous broid colours.

Women's White Canvas Button Boots

With High and Low Heels Regular $3.00 value.

Now Selling at $1.50 pr.

White Shoes

Women's White Oxfords & Pumps

Regular $3.50 and $4.00 values. Now Selling at $2.50 All pointed toes and spool heels

A Few Pairs of WOMEN'S WHITE BOOTS

High-Cut Laced as illustrated

Only $1.00 the pair

Sale Starts Tuesday Morning at 9 o'clock.

Secure Your Sizes Early.

IRKER & MONROE, Ltd.

The Shoe Men

"Devil's Corkscrew."

interest than the "devil's corkscrew,"