WOODS' FAIR.

The great Christmas trading time is upon us, and we have not been neglectful in providing ourselves to meet its requirements. Our store is packed with suitable goods for Christmas presents, bought direct from the manufacturers at the closest jobbing prices spot cash could secure, and we are offering them direct to you without their passing through the hands of a jobber, and so we can sell them at about one-third less than the regular retail merchant. What more suitable present for Christmas than a Bible? We have a splendid variety to choose from, including chappest to best; we shall sell them at about one-half the prices the regular book dealers have been asking for same quality. Just think, a beautiful Bible, limpleather bound, including the Paslms, for only 49 cents. Teachers' Oxford Bibles, including references, paraphrases, maps and concordance and Psalms, only $1.39. If you want an album we can sell you a perfect beauty, plush bound, for $1; but if you insist on going higher you need not look elsewhere; we have them and can suit you bot' in price and quality. In books, both toy and library-bound, we have a choice variety, and are offering them at as tonishing low prices. Paney, Flsie, Boys' Library, Ruby Series and Beasy Books only 19 cents. A fair-sized meeting was held in Dorchester on Wednesday evening under the anspices of the North Dorchester Agricultural Society, Richard Venning, president of the society, in the chair. James Gilmour spoke briefly, after which Hcn. John Carling delivered an address, followed by Professor Saunders, director of the Dominion Experimental Farm. Many practical hints relating to farming and dairying were given. Professor Robertson, who was expected, had made another engagement, and did not attend. A feature of the meeting was the attendance of a group of politicians from London for purposes that need hardly be suggested. Their attendance with the principal speaker gave rise to the suspicion that political intents are more important than the interests of farmers. MIDDLESEK.
