Severe on the Bishop.

London, Oct. 15.—Dr. Joseph Parker, of the City Temple, Congregationalist, surprised a large audience of his parishione the other evening by making a hot atta upon the Established Church. He upon the Established Church. He is understood to have been irritated by the unyielding attitude of the recent Church Congress at Birmingham, and therefore to have taken his first opportunity to even the score. At the opening of his address Br. Parker said that the Right Rev. Fredrick Temple, bishop of London, had forbidden Canen James W. Leigh to attend a temporance meeting at the City Temple. "If any bishop stoop to such a course as this," said Dr. Parker, "there is but one party guiltier than be, and that is the party submitting to these and that is the party submitting to these conditions. I do not hesitate to declare here that one of the first spiritual needs of conditions. I do not hesitate to declare here that one of the first spiritual needs of London's that such a bishop as the Bishop at the London's that such a bishop as the Bishop it. The London be expelled from his bishopric." Dr. Parker then spoke with much keenness of the relations between churchmen and hon-conformists. No clergyman of the Established Church, he said, could confer honer on non-conformists by attending their meetings. This was a question of Carietian spirit, and not one of privilege or partonage. The non-conformists should not allow the tidea to provail that they idea to prevail that they ourted the friendship of churchmen. They Should be hospitable and courteous toward he Established Church, but would never go to far that their hospitality and courtesy should be taken for ser ility.

ON THE FLORIDA COAST.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 15.—Tidings of damage by the storm along she coast of Florida are just beginning to come in. All along the Indian and Hilbsboro Rivers the wind reached a velocity of 80 miles an hour. Towns along the banks were flooded, wharves awept away and houses unroofed, and from 10 to 15 per cent. of oranges blown from the trees. Between New Smyrna add the ocean is a stretch of two miles of marsh through which Hillsboro runs. Between this marsh and the ocean is a barrier of sand hills. BALTIMORE PARTLY UNDER WATER.
BALTIMORE, Oct. 15.—The hurricane played havoe with the wharves. The southern part of the city is flooded and the water at the docks is even with the surface of the street. In various sections of the city houses were unroofed and trees blown down. The wind and rain swelled the water in the harbor so that the New York trains on the Baltimore and Ohio were unable to cross at Locust Point, at which place they were ferried across. From Annapolis and other points reports are multiplied of damage by the storm.

New York, Oct. 15.—The fire losses of the United States and Canada during Sopember, as estimated by the Journal of Commerce and the Commercial Bulletin, amount to $10,508,700, and for the first ninements of 1893 to $121,832,700. These later losses are 25 per cent. greater in the agregate than those for the same period in 1892.

A GREAT STRUGGLE.

BUFFALO, Get. 15.—After one of the most thrilling struggles ever witnessed at this end of the lake, the schooner Mont Blanc, from Detroit, made port yesterday afternoon with all her canyas blown away, her cargo badly listed and her captain's wife and the crew lashed to the masts and the cabin rails. The West India cyclone increased to 62 miles an hour, and when the Mont Blanc was sighted a mile up the lake she seemed to be going down. Tugstried to reach her, but were unable to weather the sea, and turned back and waited for the schooner to get inside. Gallantly she struggled, and finally when she reached the turn of the breakwater a crowd of 500 people, who had been watching her, cheered. The tugs took her in tow and got her to the docks, and then she sank in fitten feet of water. Capt. WHAT WAS THE ORIGIN?

The origin of the fire will probably always remain a mystery. This part of the affair as inexplicable. About 11 o'clock in the evening Eagineer Robinson, as is his custom, gave the whole premises an inspection. At that time everything was perfectly quiet, and nothing gave rise to any apprehension upon his part. In the glazing department, where the fire started, there was a gas furnace used for heating glass. This is turned off every night, and could not possibly be a source of fire. THE "HOME MARKET" CRY.

Not for many years has a fire, covering so small an area, but involving such an immense loss, been occasioned in this city as that which occurred in the foreign and fancy glass department of the Hobbs' Hardware Company's premises at the corner of Ridout street and the G. T. R. track Saturday. Almost $440,000 worth of stock, so far as can be computed at present, has been irredeemably damaged.

HOHTING THE FLAMES.

About 4 o'clock Sergeans Crawford, who had been notified of the fire, telephoned to the central hall. The brigade was soon upon the acene. At this time the flames were confined to the interior of the building. Only an obscure reflection indicate the blaze within.

The firemen were soon in a position to commence operations. They entered the building to ascertain the seat of the fire, tupon ascending two flights the smoke was almost suffocating. At onceseveral streams of water were playing upon the comparison of the flames burst through the roof. The firemen worked hard, and in two hours and a half succeeded in extinguishing the blaze.

Although only a small portion of the third flat was guited the damage has been estimated as very extensive. An appalling amount of fine, fancy imported glass was entirely ruined. THE DAMAGE DONE.

Although only a small portion of the third flat was gutted the damage has been estimated as very extensive. An appalling amount of fine, fancy imported glass was entirely ruined. Large quantities fell from its storage positions about the walls and lay in heaped fragments upon the floor. The art room, containing expensive colorings and valuable tools, was burned beyond recognition. Some idea of the heat of the flames is derivable from the tact that large pieces of bevelating lass picked up could be easily pulled apart with the fingers. They were almost as soft as putty. Mr. Thomas S. Hobbs stated that the loss in the glass department would not fall far short of $20,000, while a stook of binder twine, stored on the first flat, and valued at a similar amount, upon which water had deluged in volumes, would be almost entirely ruined.

WHAT WAS THE ORIGIS?

The origin of things by pointing to the period of the Mackenzie Administration, and contrasting it with the fitteen years his party had been in power. He had said that Canada was prospercus, that the Government had covered the country with public works, that the people had large sums of money in the backing. He did not know that it did him any good if Mr. Massey had a big sum of money in the bank. He did not know that the people were any better off or it. Protection did not prevent the country from getting rich, but it did prevent the distribution of wealth. If the people protected the amminfacturer and enabled him to charge just as he pleased, the result would be that the poole with the people were any better off the manufactured in Canada, were costing the people, in quality or price, from the first and resulting the people, in quality or price, from the first and resulting the people were any better off the fire 25 to 30 per cent. more than the same articles could be bought for if there was no protection. That meant that the people were paying $25 or $30 out of every $100 more than they would otherwise pay if there were no protection. The benefit to the farmer from this was the home market, but where was the home market? When Sir John Thompson went around and said that he was going to readjust the tariff that the manufacturer would have his market, that the going to readjust the tariff that the manufacturer would have his market, that the farmer would have his market, that the mechanic and workingman would have their market, he was talking bosh. If each were to have his market, then there could be no protective policy. If the manufacturer was to be protected, then the farmer or the workingman would not have preor the workingman would not have pro-
