LONDON JUNCTION.

LOCAL MARKET.

LONDON, Wednesday, Jan. 3.

There were 22 loads of hay on the stand; sales were brisk at $7.50 to $8.50 per ton; nearly all at $8 per ton. Oats sold at $1.04 and $1.05 per cwt.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

Trade at the market the past week was on the light side. Buyers were not anxious to purchase, as most of them had laid in extra supplies for Christmas trade. In a week or two, it is likely that will pick up some. Prices are as a rule steady.

Grain—Oats are the feature in this line; sales are brisk at $1.04 to $1.08 per cwt. Wheat is steady at 81c per bushel.

Hay and Straw—The following is clipped from the Montreal Trade Bulletin: There is no article of produce that farmers are more interested in than hay, and more especially is that the case at the present time, when they are holders of a large surplus from this year's crop. This surplus may not be as large as some in the trade imagine, as farmers are feeding more than usual to their cattle in order to get their cows in good shape for the coming spring, as the butter and cheese industry proved, such a profitable one during the past season. Farmers have been expecting an export demand from Great Britain to relieve them of surplus hay, but so far it has not absorbed any large quantity. The prospects, however, seem to be improving in this direction, the only drawback for a big export trade being the high freight. It is hoped that this will be overcome by prices moving up on the other side.

The price of hay on this market is $3 to $3.50 per ton. Only an occasional load sells at a higher figure. The demand is good for the best loads. Straw is in fairly brisk demand at $3.50 per ton, or $3 when sold by the load.

Butter and Eggs—Butter is firm at $2.25 for pound rolls and 22c for crocks. Eggs are a shade easier at 20c to 22c per dozen for fresh laid and 20c to 22c for packed eggs.

Apples—There is a slow demand at present. Prices rule at 60c to $1.10 per bag on $2 to $3 per barrel.

Potatoes—Trade dull in this line. Prices are 50c per bag by the load or ten-bag lots.

Poultry—Business in this line has been slow since the holidays, and no doubt it will continue so for some time. There is no change in prices as per quotations.

Dressed Hogs—Prices are higher. There are no many offered. Sales are made at $9 to $9.25 per cwt.

Live Hogs—There will be a shipment from here on Monday, when it is said about $5.50 per cwt will be paid for selects. There is not much doing in small pigs, which sell at $5 to $7 per pair for pigs 8 to 10 weeks old.

Butchers' Meat—As most of the butchers had a large stock before the holidays there is not much marketed at present. Prices are unchanged.
