ENGLAND'S UNEMPLOYED

Government Takes Means to Relieve Some of the Distress.

London, Oct. 21.-The very serious matter of the unemployed in England came up for discussion in the House of Commons this afternoon, but a grapple with the permanent causes thereof until the next session. The Government, he said, was prepared to provide a fund of $1,500,000 to help the unemployed, and the admiralty was giving out orders for the construction of nine torpedo boat destroyers and five unarmored cruisers, to cost a total of $12,500,000, two months earlier than originally had been intended. The Premier made also a bid for recruits, saying that the war office was ready will to take on 24,000 men for winter training in the special reserves. These proposals quite fail to meet the demands of the Labor members of
