[Special to The Advertiser.]

Detroit, Sept. 8.—Fred Falkenberg, the Nap twirler, who put a crimp in Detroit's ambitions at Cleveland last Saturday, after the Champions had won 13 and one consecutive games, went in against the Champions at Bennett Park again yesterday, and the result was a 7 to 4 victory for McGuire's men.

The Cleveland star, who is making rapid strides towards becoming one of the league's most effective flingers, did not blank the Tigers yesterday, as he did on the meeting six days ago. Detroit got the same number of hits in each contest, but yesterday a timely grouping of smashes with one of Cleveland's misplays, paved the way for the annexation of three of the Tigers' four runs.

Tyrus Cobb's Share.

The last run scored by Detroit was registered in the eighth inning by Ty Cobb. The Georgian got three of the five hits that Falkenberg allowed the Champions last Saturday. Yesterday Tyrus got two of five allotted his teammates, and one was a double, the other a three-bagger.

Falkenberg twirled in excellent form. Had he been accorded perfect support Detroit tallies might have been limited to a single one. There is nothing of the strikeout artist in the twirler's makeup. The Tigers hit him hard yesterday, but not frequently where a Nap wasn't in spearing distance of the ball.

Donovan Forced to Leave.

"Bill" Donovan opposed the Naplander at the start. He remained in the box two innings, and succeeded in holding the Ohioans in check. The Smiler's arm suddenly went back on him and "Bill" wisely retired from the game, Willett taking his place.

Had Donovan remained it might have been different. Judging from the way he began, it would have been interesting at any rate.

Buffalo, Sept. 8.—One Jeffrey Pfeffer, a late and lamented citizen of Baltimore, Md., heaved one of the best games seen on a local diamond since Kisinger's memorable performance, yesterday when he held our noted athletes to a matter of two hits —one in the first inning and one in the last. This Mr. Pfeffer walked Nattress twice, and Mullen juggled Woods' grounder another time. Out of this sparse allowance our side did manage to squeeze one run, that in the first inning when Nattress walked, went to third on White's single and scored on Brain's fly to left. After that only one man got to second base on the Toronto pitcher, Wally Woods, and he got there on an error and stole the bag, and the visitors won their last game of the season on the local grounds, 4 to 1.
