

Autumn Display of MILLINERY

And Ladies' Readyto-Wear Garments

Wednesday, Sept. 18, and Following Days

See this wonderful exhibit of High-Class Wearing Apparel for misses and ladies, every style in Millinery from Imported Gage Hats to our own distinct creations, all at the everpopular Young prices.

Women's Suits at $18.50

New Whipcord Suits for women who want a stylish garment at a popular price. They come in navy, brown and black; sizes 34 to 40 bust; coats are silk lined and are $25.00 values.

70-Inch Table Linen Full bleached, superior finish, regular dollar value. Thursday only79¢

ANOTHER CHANCE TO BUY $1.25 LONG HIP, SOFT SKIRT

Suit Corsets

Made of imported coutil, rustproof boning; sizes 18 to 26.

50 Dozen Imported Llama Cashmere

Stockings

All full fashioned and seamless; sizes 81/2 to 10 inch. On

500 yards of Imported Zibeline, tweed and Scotch tweeds, 52 inches wide, sold regularly at $1. Thursday special 75¢

Dress Goods

and Suitings

500 yards of Priestley Shrunk Serge, 52 inches wide, in navy, brown, royal and black. Dollar value, Thursday

R. J. YOUNG & CO.

THOUSANDS CHEER LAURIER AT THE OPENING MEETING a market for our surplus natural products in the nearby republic. Let my word be heard throughout the Liberal Leader Declares Question of Wider Markets Must Yet down. Be Settled If Canada Is To Take the Place That She Should Fill.

Sturgeon Falls, Sept. 17. — Sir Wil- were read in both languages, and Sir frid Laurier today made his first Wilfrid was the recipient of the cusvisit to this Province since the defeat tomary bouquets. The addresses of of last September, and his reception welcome advocated and engagement was that of a conquering hero. Strip- of the British preference and "amped of the badges and trappings of of- elioriation of general tariff condifice, removed from the prestige of the tions." They also declared for a Canprmiership, the people of Sturgeon adian navy and the construction of ralls and the whole district of Nip- the Georgian Bay Canal. issing, over five thousand in number, testified to their esteem of and affection for a great Canadian.

uniting in doing him honor, it was tended Ontario's greeting to a memorable occasion, and the veteran statesman was moved to unusual emotion. Leaning forward from the garlanded platform, gazing into thousands of straining eyes, Sir Wilfrid feelingly acknowledged the remarkable greeting from the Province which a to raise his hand for silence. With few months ago voted him out of

"May God bless you!" fervently exclaimed a pioneer at the front of the throng. Sir Wilfrid raised his hat amid impressive silence. "He has blessed me," he responded quietly, "for more than 70 years, and I ask him to bless me more. It may be that I may again be called to the high office in which I was privileged to serve for fifteen years. But whether in or out of office, my heart and life are at the disposal of my Canadian fellow-country-

For a thrilling moment the great gathering rose and stood silent, then to gave vent to its emotion in several moments of enthusiastic and unrestrained cheering. Despite the fact that a misty rain fell throughout the whole morning, and neighboring hall for the overflow, but it was found imposssible to house the large throng in both places, Mr. Z. Mageau, M.P.P., told how families had driven over forty miles for the opportunity to see and hear "the chief." They started yesterday afternoon and took the journey overnight. The disappointment was so great that it was decided to brave the elements and hold

Following brief addresses by Messrs. A. J. Young and Z. Mageau, M. P. P., Hon, Mackenzie King, as president of English and French fellow-citizens the Ontario Liberal Association, exthe

Chief. A Fine Reception Sir Wilfrid was accorded a remark-able reception. The big gathering cheered and cheered again until it was necessary for the Liberal leader evident emotion he bespoke his appreciation of the wonderful greeting. He professed his continued allegiance insured government of, by and for the people. "I do not say the people of Canadian nationhood bused in the peop with a smile. "I think they made one The people altered my conviction.

"We're going to do it," declared a voice, amid applause, Yes, I believe you are," responded Sir Wilfrid, with a smile. Duty to Expand Trade.

Continuing, the Liberal leader defined the position of the Liberal party. "It is," said he. "one of the party. "It is," said he. "one of the first duties in our political economy to of his difficulties. Why don't they will not tolerate any impairment extend our trade in all directions. We are a young nation at the threshold Murphy, amid laughter and cheers. earlier part of the afternoon, it was of our career; we believe in expandnecessary to hold the meeting out of ing our trade. By that policy we shall Arrangements had been made continue to stand. That is the policy to use the large skating rink, with a which will bring us back into power. (Cheers.) Upon what lines shall that policy be developed. By trade between province and province, was the reason we sought to develop and create new lines of communica-tien. By trade with the old mother

Letters of a Slim-Made Woman to Her Fat Sister

creased the British preference, And, lastly, by trade with foreign nations; that is the reason we sought to find a market for our surplus natural prokilled, they tell us. Perhaps, but the question is not solved. It will not It is indispensable to young and growing country, it is indispensable to the great young west, that markets should be provided for its production if Canada is to attain the place she is. I trust, destined to

"In a vast country like ours it is inevitable that certain sections develop divergent interests, and it is the duty of all true Canadians to recognize conditions and try to find means of just reconciliation. The cause of one must be the cause of all. I ask you Canadians of the east to examine the western grievance, and see that the people of the west are given that justice to which they are entitled from their country." Speaking in French, Sir Wilfrid addressed himself to imperial issues. He urged his compatriots to beware of race and creed, and to preserve most cordial relations and best understanding with their fellowcountrymen of British origin. the rights of Britain are menaced anywhere," he declared, "I would come to you and ask you to give me a hand to fight for them, and I know you would respond. (Cheers). is the ring in which I have always fought, and in which I will remain prejudice and injustice."

Hon. Charles Murphy recalled the in September last, but that has not fact that the day was the anniversary of the day upon which the Ontario Conservatives welcomed Henri Bour- of this lowering of the standard of assa into alliance with them at the the road, Hon. Frank Cochrane and may make mistakes sometimes, but Conservatives welcomed Henri Bour-they have the power to rectify them." assa into alliance with them at the "Today," he meeting at Sudbury. in Bourassa?" queried Mr. call

> Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, in a spirited speech in French, and Hon. up the meeting. the inaction and indecision of the railroad are being increased, its chief Borden Government in regard to the naval question, the canal situation, the Hudson Bay Railway and national problems. "Poor Mr. Borden!" observed Mr. Graham, amid laughter. "He went over to England and said nothing, and repeated it upon several occasions."
> He pointed out that whereas when

Government's Inaction Criticized.

Woman to Her Fat Sister they was the elements and hold they wast meeting out of doors. Men, women and children were gathered under a great sea of umbrellas. And as, Sir Wilfrid spoke the clouds broke for the first time and the gathering cheered as the skies cleared.

A Floral Shower.

The town was in gala attire. No less than forty streamers canopied its streets, and flags and butting better, and flags and the streets, and flags and the butting the decked its buildings. Three beautiful articles of evergreens had been-rected, and, clustered in their emerald arms were twelve dainty little school girls, six English and six French. As the carriage bearing Six Wilfrid passed undermeath the arches the diminution of the meeting showered land on the street of the six will be the street of the stre

LOWERS VALUE OF NATIONAL RAILWA

Serious Charge Made By Hon. Charles Murphy Against the Government.

REFILLING OF CUTS SPOILS OLD PLANS

In Many Places the Finished Road Beds Have Been Torn Up.

Sturgeon Falls, Sept. 17. - Hon. Charles Murphy, in the course of his address to the great Liberal gathering here today, made a trenchant criticism of the Borden Government's administration of the Transcontinental Railway. He charged that the road is being degraded, its grades increased, and that the country will greatly suffer in consequence. this point, Mr. Murphy said:

"In 1904 the Liberal Government matured a policy for the construction of the National Transcontinental Railway and submitted their policy to the people in the general election of that year. The policy was approved by the people and contracts were at once entered into for the building of the road. To make the road superior

Canada, and his further assertion is that when they are handed over by the contractors the Government will not require to spend one cent in bet-

"Now, mark what has happened inder the present Government. Withn a few months after attaining office Frank Cochrane dismissed the three Transcontinental Railway com-

Been Tampered With. "Let me give you some examples of done under the present commission is below the required standard. Temporary trestles made of logs with the Mme. Mary Hallock, one of the great bark on have been turned into permanent structures by simply peeling the bark off the logs. Then there are other temporary trestles which "I would were put in 'off centre,' as the engineers say, to be used while construction was under way and before the ironwork was in place. A numof these are still in position, while beside them other wooden trestles have been built to form part of the finished roadbed Few Changes. "These are only a few of the changes that have been made in the character of the work. None of them can be justified. In explanation Commissioner Leonard have issued proceeded, "the millionaires' club of evasive statements which deceive no-Toronto and the vested interests who body. As the Ottawa Journal, a joined with the unholy alliance of leading Conservative paper, says, Bourassa and Borden to put the twain there has been so much money spent in power are calling to Sir Wilfrid on the road, and the Canadian people Laurier to come to Lorden's help on are so vitally interested in its conbe a correct expression of public opinion, and we shall see that effect is as soon as Parliament a given to it In the meantime the Cana-Geo. P. Graham in English, wound dian people should not lose sight of They dealt with the fact that while the grades on their competitor, the C. P. R., is spending millions to reduce its grades, and in many parts of the country is double tracking its line."

AMUSEMENTS

"The Flirting Princess," Will Be Repeated at the Grand Tonight.

she uses to advantage. The other roles are in capable hand. One of the pleasing features was the singing of the Crescent City Four, a male quartette of more than ordinary ability.

Was New York Success.
The characteristics of the Messrs. Shuberts' New York Casino success. "The Kiss Waltz." which Valeska Suratt and her opera company will render at the Grand tomorrow night, are the tuneful to all others on the continent, it was, among other things, provided that the maximum grade going eas should be only four-tenths of one per cent, cr twenty-one feet in a mile, and the maximum grade going east should be property, and have spent much time in conting. maximum grade going east should be only six-tenths of one per cent, thirty-one feet in a mile.

Rushed the Work.

Shubert realized the importance of the property, and have spent much time in selecting a cast and rehearsing the principals and chorus. No better evidence of the popularity of "The Kiss Waltz" can be found than through the fact that wherever the opera is staged its melo-Rushed the Work.

"For over seven years, while the Liberals remained in office, the road was built in accordance with these grades, and millions of dollars were spent in pushing on the work. The sections of the road that were completed during these years are of such a high standard that a leading railway authority has declared they have no equal in the United States or Canada, and his further assertion is The scenic equipment of the play is elaborate, massive and beautiful, while the costuming has been accorded much praise wherever the operetta has been presented, for its daintiness and because f its keeping with the atmosphre of the

A Genuire Scotch Comedy.

"The Scrape o' the Pen" will be presented at the Grand Saturday, matinee and night. The company to present this three Transcontinental Railway commissioners, and then had an act passed reducing the commission to one person. The commission, as thus constituted, in violation of the policy approved by the people of Canada in 1904, in violation of the terms of the contract itself, and in defiance of the purpose for which the Parliament of Canada, session after session, voted millions of the people's money, has, on different parts of the line, increased the grades not only on new work, but on finished work as well.

Been Tampered With.

Interest in All-Star Course. the way in which the people's railroad has been tampered with. In certain places where cuts have been completed, refilling has been done in order to increase the grade, At other points the finished roadbed has been cut down for the same purpose, and cut down for the same purpose, and almost completely sold out for each conthe material so removed has been thrown on either side of the track, are placed on sale. This is not surpristing when one considers that at each continuous contin thrown on either side of the track, thus destroying the uniformity of alignment as well as altering the grade. But perhaps the most illuminating case of all is that of a weeden trestle, 800 feet long and 20 feet high, which was cut down 10 feet throughout the artists long the greatest artists of this wonderful throughout the artists long the greatest artists of this property of a heaviful quality, and his wonderful high, which was cut down 10 feet throughout its entire length, so that an increased grade might be obtained. "In other respects also the work one under the present commission is elow the required standard. Tempianists of the younger generation

Tunnel Town News

ALLEGED HE FORCED ATTENTIONS ON WOMAN

Frank Hawken Faces Serious Disorderly Charge—Police Search for Missing Boys.

SARNIA BRANCH OFFICE, 209 Front Street, Office hours, 9 a.m. to 9:30 a.m., 3:30 m. to f:00 p.m.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Sarnia, Sept. 18.-Frank Hawken vas arrested last night by Provincial Detective Acton on a warrant issued against him last week. Hawken, according to the story told at police headquarters, attempted on the night of Wednesday last, to force himself into the home of a Mrs. Harrison against her wishes.

It is further alleged that when repulsed he drew a gun and threatened His friends have been inrouble. formed of his arrest, and have secured a lawyer to conduct the de-

A communication has been received at police station asking the authorities to watch for and take into custody if seen, four boys who escaped from the Industrial School at Mimico Arthur Mason, James Foster, Scarling and Albert York are the names of the lads who range in age from fourteen to seventeen years.

The youthful fugitives were dress-ed at the time of their disappearance in check cotton shirts and gray pants.

UNFRIENDLY SPIRIT AT COUNCIL MEETING

Members Engaged in III-Natured Remarks and Did Nothing. [Special to The Advertiser.]

Sarnia, Sept. 17 .- Not anything of importance transpired at the council meeting last night, but a most humorous exposition of the far from friendly relations which exist among several of the aldermen took place: Statements were made, which, if true, do not reflect much giory on eertain representatives of the municipality, which could have been left unsaid to better advantage by both sides. Judging from a remark made

STRONG'S

You insure two things in buying Strong's Baking Powder. You get the best powder skill can devise, and of absolute purity, and you save money. Why pay more for powders that cannot possibly be better, or why take chances of adulteration on the unknown cheaper powders?

25c per pound at

Strong's Cook Book, enlarged new edition, contains many new recipes you'll like. Free. Get one.

ne of the aldermen, the implication is that certain interests or people are pulling strings to further their own purposes. In fact, as one citizen remarked, "the meeting was a chaotic emanation of political gas."

A UNIQUE TRIP

Tugs Towed Part of Wreck Many [Special to The Advertiser.]

Sarnia, Sept. 18.-The Reid tugs Manistique and Reid, towing two hundred and sixty feet of the hull of the Moreland, arrived here today, and accomplished one of the most remarkable wrecking feats known. The big six hundred footer was wrecked in Lake Superior three years

Rumors were affoat Monday that the vessel and its escort had sunk during the storm on that date, but these were proved unfounded as the boats passed Harbor Beach yesterday on their way down,

ACCIDENTAL DEATH

Jury Investigated Recent Tragedy or Grand Trunk at Strathroy.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Sarnia, Sept. 18. — At the inquest into the death of G. T. R. Brakeman Leon Eastman, who was killed at Strathroy recently, the jury, under Coroner Dr. Logie, last brought in a verdict of accidental death. Just before he died young Eastman said his lamp blew out and in the dark he stepped between the cars.

PAINFULLY INJURED. Sarnia, Sept. 18 -Robert McArthur, governor of the county jail here, was badly shaken up besides suffering several minor brulses as the result of falling into an excavation at the jail

FROM SEPT. 30. Shorthand, Bookkeeping, etc. Westervelt School Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.

French Dry Cleaning

Thoroughly cleaning of elaborately-trimmed dresses, opera mantles, silk wraps, men's dress suits and other fine garments, without any ripping apart or damage to the material R. PARKER & CO.

Dyers and Cleaners,

211 DUNDAS ST., LONDON, ONT

Ladies' Fall Suits Comprising all the latest New York effects. Our styles are not only correct, but uncommonly smart. They have those distinctive metropolitan touches that are so attractive to all women who desire to be correctly and smartly attract smartly attired.

All the leading shades in stock, ranging in price from $12 to $30. We invite your inspection. OPEN A CHARGE ACCOUNT WITH US.

LONDON READY-TO-WEAR

Your Money Is Get-at-able

The balance to your credit is always yours when you want it.

You present your check and the amount it calls for is paid you at once.

In all respects our system stands for convenience, as well as safety.

In all respects we treat the small depositor with the same consideration as the monied man.

Let us take charge of that little nest egg you are carrying around in your pocket.

'Tis safer.

Four Offices in London:

Corner King and Richmond Streets: J. Pringle, Manager. Cor. Dundas and Adelaide Streets: F. D. Copeland, Manager. Corner Richmond and John Streets: S. C. Houston, Manager. Corner Dundas and Talbot Streets: J. C. McDonald, Manager.

A Striking Contrast

To appoint an individual executor means placing great responsibility in one person's honesty and ability.

To appoint this Company means employing the services of specialists with the capital and assets of the Company pledged to their honesty.

The contrast in the two qualities of service is obvious But the fees of the Company are less. We shall be glad to have you consult us about your will.

The Fidelity Trusts Company of Ontario

Masonic Temple, London.

OUR NEW HOME 235 DUNDAS STREET. Quality flowers. Prompt attention to

F. DICKS & SON

(As Explained by the Beauty Doctors). Each morning, when you first awake, Massage your face and head, Roll over fifty times and take A dozen eggs in bed; And after that, before you dress, Run swiftly round the room About two hundred times, no less-(This keeps one's youthful bloom.)

Use seven kinds of vaseline And eighteen sorts of paste To keep the epidermis clean And help reduce the waist, Drink orange juice and lemonade From dawn to late at night, The while a masseuse and a maid Are all the while in sight.

Relax at least ten hours a day, And exercise for ten. Sleep eight hours—that much anyway-Then exercise again. Don't read-it wrinkles up the eyes; Don't eat-it makes you fat; Don't laugh-all beauty hints advise Decidedly on that.

There are a dozen other tasks That one must always do, Like wearing rubber beauty masks And rubber corsets, too. No single minute can you spare For friends or love, maybe; But oh; consider, lady fair How beautiful you'll be.