JUNE WEDDINGS

Lane-Stinson.

A pretty wedding was solemnized t St. Mary's Church this morning, when Miss Lillian Stinson, of Quebec street, was married to Mr. Frank Lane of 699 Elias street. Mr. James Miles supported the groom, while the bride was assisted by Miss Katie Clark, of South London. The nuptial high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Me-Keon. Mr. and Mrs. Lane will reside in East London.

Porter-Ferguson. St. Andrew's Church was the scene of one of the season's prettiest weddings this afternoon at 3 o'clock when Miss Adelaide Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fergusor, of 548 Talbot street, became the bride of Mr. Frederick Pierpont Morgan, between a couple B. Porter, of Toronto. Rev. James Ross, McClary's molding shop terminated in D.D., paster of St. Andrew's, performed the ceremony, the church being beautiand as a result James McLean was fied for the event with palms, roses, white peonles and masses of marguerites. Mr Charles B. Wheeler, organist, played the wedding marcrh as the bridal procession entered, the bride leaning on her father's arm, and preceded by three charming bridesmaids. The bride looked extremely winsome in her wedding robe of white satin, made with square court train, and trimmed with duchess lace and seed pearls. A full bridal veil was worn. caught up with orange blossoms and ouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.
