The Meaning of a Name SECRET SERVICE

means everything that is choicest in fine tea. "SALADA" means the world's best tea --- "hillgrown Ceylon"--- with all the exquisite freshness and flavor retained by the sealed lead packages.

BLACK, GREEN or MIXED

"This," said the inspector, taking his

(To be continued.)

Florence, Oct. 10. - Mr. Norman

Mrs. Frank Scurrah has left to visit her son Charlie, of Owen Sound, who will leave for Vancouver shortly.

Miss Janet Lindsay spent Wednes-

Mr. Torrence will occupy the Pres-ng.

Miss Robb and Miss Davis left on byterian pulpit here on Sunday even-

Thursday to attend the Teachers' As-day at Bothwell.

Sinclair attended the Ridgetown fair

FLORENCE.

cue at a quick prod from Rosalie's foot, "is Mrs. Le Grange. She is the lady who

"Well, I guess they were fruit stains, all right," replied McGee. "Can't find any blood on Wade's things, either.' "Which is natural. A wound like that don't begin to bleed right off. No neces-sity for gettin' bloody if the murderer accoldent—and took the boarders over to only kept his head, which generally they don't. Of course, you've tried to find where the knife came from?"

McGen smile came from?"

McGee smiled on her.

McGee smiled on her.

"Have I caught you asleep at last?" he asked.

"Nope," replied Rosalie promptly and cheerfully, "since you put it that way. I saw the pile of junk on the table—an there was another knife in it. What do you find about that stuff?"

"Nothing yet But I bet I'll find more with the same in the part of the work of the more convincingly the appearance of simple, placid bourgeois respectability. Not a quiver of an eye-ground ash not the flash of a dimple—quiet-eyed an active of Ulster Nationalists. He is a native of Ulster himself. "Nothing yet. But I bet I'll find more when I put Lawrence Wade through the "I should very much like to hear it," when I put Lawrence wade through the Third Degree. I guess it's Wade."

"I guess probably," admitted Rosalie.
"Most mysteries ain't mysteries at all at first," interposed Rosalie, making a after the first day. Well, now, I'm bother-in' a busy man in office hours an' I must

Honest now." he said "wouldn to listen, just the same.'

"Show them in." said the inspector on the instant, as though fearing that she would puit back her permission.
"But not unless she's willing," said

And then through the door came two 'Good Lord!" commented Rosalie under her shoulders, her size but the ripe roundness of a goddess figure. She was dark, she was young, she was beautiful. At that moment her face hinted tragedy in every line and color, but at any moment she must have been serious. It could frankness and ingenuousness. Beyond their beauty however, they had an arresting quality so strong, when she regarded you full-face, as to be poignant. It all lay in her expression of innocence triumphant over experience, of sincerity triumphant over many lies. Rosalle Le Grange, connoisseur of her sex, sat regarding her

The second woman-in fact, she was stitle more than a girl-had everything which the other had not. She seemed but the illuminated shadow of her who called herself Mrs. Hanska. She was slender, blonde and fragile; her quality was elfin. Rosalie could spare her but a glance.

"I am Mrs. Hanska, widow of the man who was killed last night." said the taller woman, and she hesitated.

It was not the custom of Inspector his office in the role of the accused or of witnesses. A little brutality of attitude, he felt, put them in a role of attitude, he felt, put them in a meek and operation on Monday, died on Wedhumble mood for the subsequent Third nesday morning. Degree proceedings. But this woman—or was it the respected presence of Rosalie Scarlett.

Le Grange?—drew him to his feet.
"Won't you sit down?" he said.
"Thank you. May I introduce Miss Elizabeth Lane? She is here to verify what I have to say." All this with Miss Estella George has been appointed vice-president to fill the vacancy of Miss Pearl Paddick.
Miss Kendall is the guest of Mrs. what I have to say." All this with Miss K. perfect simplicity. Her eyes travelled S. Peters.

are pale and frail-backward in studies-with pinched starved because their regular food does not nourish.

Every Druggist Has It.

faces and poor blood—their minds and bodies are actually weight in solid flesh—its medicinal, tonic and nutritive properties make all good food do good.

IT IS NOT A PROP, BUT A FOUNDATION FOR STURDY GROWTH.

Such children need Scott's Emulsion above

Scott's Emulsion often builds many times its

Avoid Substitutes

everything else; it contains nature's rarest life-giving fats; it is essentially food value-blood-food and bone-food, free from wine, alcohol or harmful drug.

Fund for the Assistance of Ulster. Unionists Being Raised Here.

H. J. BENNETT TREASURER

Preceptor of Inniskilling Lodge Ready to Receive Subscriptions in Spite of Edict.

Threats of secret service surveilance and the edict that funds cannot e collected in Canada for the Ulster anti-home rulers has apparently no terrors for London Orangemen. The "bluff" of the Dominion police, as it has been so characterized by Orangemen all over Canada, is being called by the London lodges, for a fund has been opened, and is being subscribed to. Preceptor H. J. Bennett, of the Inniscilling Preceptory of the Royal Black Knights of Ireland, is treasurer of the fund. He has announced his willingness to receive contributions from anyone who desires to help the cause of the fighting loyalists of Ulster.
Only Smiles at Threats.

When the question of the threats of reason, imprisonment and secret service was broached to Mr. Bennett, he only smiled.

"We are not afraid of the secret service here in London," he declared. "We certainly couldn't send any men over from here in a body, but there is nothing to prevent them going as in-

Ulster Will Fight.

Preceding his statement with the famous "Ulster is right; Ulster will fight," Mr. Bennett says: The Loyalin' a busy man in office hours an' I must run along. Let's see—five minutes to four, an' it's bad luck to go before the hour. Suppose you tell me about yourself an' how the world's usin' you?"

Inspector McGee sat back in his office chair and waxed eloquent. However, his narrative of pulls and promotions and Tammany influence was never finished. For before the hour struck, the silent attentive doorman entered and laid on his desk a card, inspector McGee took it up, glanced at it perfunctorily, and suddenly let out an exclamation which had all the glanced at it perfunctorily, and suddenly let out an exclamation which had all the power and verve of an oath.

"By the great cats!" he exclaimed, "look at that—'Mrs. John H. Hanska'"

Rosalie took the card and fingered it.

"The widow, I bet."

"Thought he was single," remarked the finspector. "Though, after all, I'd just been taking it for granted."

"Well," said Rosalie, rising, "that's come-again-soon for me."

But the Inspector was observing her with eyes which held quizzleal invitatiation.

"Honest, now," he said. "wouldn't you had sub-conscious emotion had net sub-conscious middle sub-cons

"Honest, now," he said, "wouldn't you like to sit in on this interview?"
Rosalie flashed her dimples and contemplated him for a second. Then, with the unexpected lightness which marked all her movements she sat down.

"See here, Martin McGee," she said, "you ain't goin' to make a fool of me, draggin' me into this case—but I'm dyin' to listen, just the same."

"But the little blonde spoke now for the gight for it like men? Is all the backbone of Ireland in the loyalist camp? The loyalists are as much Irish as the home rulers. They and their forefathers settled in Ire-land, just as the ancestors of the know enough about law to understand to listen, just the same."

But the little blonde spoke now for the provisional government for the purpositional government for the provisional go

But the little blonde spoke now for the provisional government for the pur-But the little blonde spoke now for the first time, and for the first time Rosalle turned her attention from the greater luminary to its satellite. She was a child of whimsy and the sun. Her face ran to tiny points and peaks, her coloring to twinkles of light. Her blue eyes were snapping now as she exclaimed:

"Implicated! You'll have a hard time doing that!"

"And she gazed travellently doing that!"

And she gazed travellently represented the provisional government for the purpose of taking over the province for the British nation, in case the home rule bill becomes law. Sir Edward Carson is the leading spirit of this movement, and he is being supported by such men as Lord Charles Beresford, the Marquis of Londonderry, the And she gazed truculently Duke of Abercorn and others. A mili-CHAPTER III.

Mrs. Hanska's Story.

The first was tall and big. But her height was mainly the superb carriage of her shoulders, her size but the ripe roundness of a goddess figure. She was don't.

The first was tall and big. But her height was mainly the superb carriage of her shoulders, her size but the ripe roundness of a goddess figure. She was don't.

The first was tall and big. But her plain statement of her desires; "it's this gentleman's duty to warn me, you know."

"Betsy-Barbara—that's a cute name. I or wounded in the fighting."

every line and color, but at any moment she must have been serious. It could smile in flashes, that face—with its broad, serene brow, which held its own only by force against floods of dark hair, with its regular line of profile, with its large rippled mouth parting slowly even on her speech. But it was the eyes which gave gravity to her beauty. They were clear and big; they had the rare lift at the inner curve which lends an appearance of best course was to mollify her until she liberty and who do not want to see the British Empire dissolved. London Takes the Lead. "Inniskilling Preceptory has taken the initiative in the Province of Ontario, and is raising a fund that being liberally contributed to. I will be glad to receive any subscriptions from anyone who wants to help the cause of Ireland and the British Em-

LAMBETH.

Lambeth, Oct. 10. - Mr. Nathan Tunks has sold his farm and will move Messrs. Frank and Murray Cornell, of Chicago, are the guests of their uncle, Mr. J. H. Cornell, Miss Sadie Coleman, of Comber, is risiting Miss Ruth Swanson. Mr. J. D. Best, of Grand Rapids, Mich., is visiting friends and relatives

Miss Greaves is a guest of Mrs. L Mrs. D. Mann is very much improved from her recent illness BLENHEIM.

Blenheim, Oct. 10. — C. McAllister spent a few days with friends here re-

The weekly meeting of the Methodist Epworth League was held last evening, and was largely attended. Preparations were made for the coming Epworth League convention of the London Conference. This convention s expected to be the largest ever held in Blenheim. Over 200 delegates are her 64th year. Sixteen weeks ago she was a victim of a paralytic stroke, and ever since had been confined to her bed. The funeral was held from the family residence on McGregor street, and conducted by Rev. E. C. Jennings. A family of two sons and one daughter

DRESSED THE PART.

The juveniles of Puddlefurrow had pened their cricket season. The day was fine and the players were in good form; in fact, everything was in season, even the disgust of the sharpfeatured lady whose garden adjoined the pitch.

"Funny thing your boy Jimmy can't play a game. without 'avin' such big ideas.' she remarked over the fence to the lady next door. "Wot's 'e alwus want ter stand humpire for?"

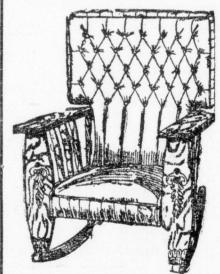

"Pity you can't get somethink bet- COLIC, and is the best remedy for diar-

Saturday Bargains in Furniture, Etc

AWAY FROM THE HIGH-PRICE DISTRICT, WE CAN AFFORD TO SELL YOU GOODS FOR LESS MONEY."

KEENE BROS., 123-5-7 KING ST.

money. GET OUR PRICES.

Regular $18.00, large massive Oak Couches, upholstered in best Rexine

leatherette, all steel-tied

$12.65 Each

On Saturday Only

springs, for

Solid Oak Rockers Upholstered in best

Bradley leather, that will last a lifetime. Your choice of ten different patterns. Regular $10.00, for $7.35

Rugs and Linoleums

Of every style, size, quality and design, for least

CENTRE TABLES, Regular $3.00, Saturday,

Stoves. Heaters WE CAN SAVE YOU $10 ON ONE.

Will you investigate our guaranteed stove? It gives satisfaction or money refunded.

numpire if 'e likes, I s'pose?' "Dessay 'e 'as," snapped the sharp-'eatured lady; "but nex' time 'e sneaks my old man's nightshirt off the line to dress 'isself up in 'e'll get summat as'll make 'im want ter give other fel-

COMFORT SOAP Positively the Largest Sale in Canada.

The World's Best

seeking relief from the illnessee caused by defective action of the organs of digestion. Most serious sick-

nesses get their start in troubles of the stomach, liver, bowels—troubles quickly, safely, surely relieved by

TRAVELLERS' GUIDE

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY. SARNIA TUNNEL TO SUSPENSION BRIDGE AND TORONTO. Arrive from the East—*3:52 a.m., 10:56 a.m., *11:12 a.m., *11:28 a.m., *6:30 p.m., *7:55 p.m., 10:45 p.m. Arrive from the West—*12:14 a.m., 3.43 a.m., *11:55 a.m., 1.10 p.m., *4:10 Arrive from the West—*12:14 a.m., 3.43 a.m., *11:55 a.m., 1.10 p.m., *4:10 p.m., 6:25 p.m.

Depart for the East—*12:19 a.m., *3:48 a.m., 7:20 a.m., 9:00 a.m., *12:05 p.m., 2:05 p.m., 6:55 p.m.

Depart for the West—*3:57 a.m., 7:40 a.m., *11:18 a.m., *11:35 a.m., 1:40 p.m.

LONDON AND WINDSOR. Arrive-11:30 a.m., 4:00 p.m., 6:80 p.m., 11:05 p.m. Depart—6:35 a.m., *11:43 a.m., 2:08 p.m., *8:05 p.m.

STRATFORD BRANCH. Arrive-11:15 a.m., 1:39 p.m., 6:45 .m., 11:30 p.m. Depart—6:00 a.m., 10:00 a.m., 12:30 p.m., 2:45 p.m., 4:55 p.m. LONDON, HURON AND BRUCE. Arrive—10:00 a.m., 6:10 p.m. Depart—8:30 a.m., 4:40 p.m. Trains marked * run daily. Those not marked, daily, except Sunday.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY.

Arrive from the East—*11:42 a.m., 6:45 p.m., *8:00 p.m., *11:25 p.m.

Arrive from the West—*4:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m., *12:25 p.m., *5:20 p.m., 8:50 p.m. Depart for the East-*4:38 a.m., 8:00 a.m., *12:35 p.m., *5:30 p.m. Depart for the West-8:15 a.m., 11:50 a.m., 6:55 p.m., *8:10 p.m., *11:33

p.m Trains marked * run daily. Those not marked, daily, except Sunday. MICHIGAN CENTRAL RAILWAY. Arrive—7:05 a.m., 11:20 a.m., 4:50 p.m., 9:45 p.m. Depart—7:22 a.m., 2:22 p.m., 5:27 p.m., 10:15 p.m.

PERE MARQUETTE RAILWAY. Trains depart-5:40 a.m., *7:10 a.m. 9:45 a.m., 2:30 p.m., *4:20 p.m., †6:30 .m. Trains arrive—8:45 a.m., *12:50 p.m., 1:50 p.m., 5:10 p.m., 10:10 p.m.
Trains marked with are through trains, to and from Walkerville. Train marked with t is mixed to St. Thomas

Traction Company Winter Time

p.m.
Through cars to Port, 7:50, 9:30, 11:30
a.m., 1:30, 3:30, 5:30, 7:30, 10:30 p.m.
Sunday cars to Port, 9:00 a.m., and every two hours to 7:00 p.m.; to 8t.

CANADIAN

From All Stations in Ontario To Certain Points in British Columbia Alberta California Montana Washington Oregon Idaho, etc.

Daily Until Oct. 10 Full particulars, Rates, Etc., from any C. P. R. Agent, or write M. G. Murphy, District Passenger Agent,

HOMESEEKERS' EXCURSIONS October 14-21-28

To Manitoba, Alberta, Saskatchewan, via Chicago, St. Paul and Duluth or Sarnia and Northern Nav. Co. WINNIPEG AND RETURN, $35.00 EDMONTON AND RETURN, $43.00 Proportionate low rates to other points. Return limit two months.
Through Pullman Tourist Sleeping Cars are operated to Winnipeg without change, leaving Toronto 11 p.m. on above dates.
The Grand Trunk Pacific Railway is the shortest and quickest route be-tween Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Edmon-Full particulars and reservations at any Grand Trunk Ticket Office.

R. E. RUSE, City Passenger and

PERE MARQUETTE RAILROAD COMPANY. NOTICE

New Time Table Went Into Effect on September 8.

EUROPE White Star Line

Steamers sailing from New York, Boston, Montreal, to Great Britain, Ireland, Mediterranean, the Continent. Superb fleet. Unsurpassed service.

Ask our agents.

E. De La Hooke, W. Fulton, F. B. Clarke or R. E. Ruse, Agts.