The Conservatives Select Mr. James Benty Three Men Arrested at Kingston for the A Large Meeting Bailey's hall, Huron street, was we filled last night by the Conservative delegates from the four wards of West Toronto -St. Patricks, St. Stephens, St. Georges, and St. Andrews-who met in convention to select a candidate in the forthcoming Mr. Barwick of Murray & Barwick presided, and John Millett secretaried. Among those present were E. King Dodds, Joshua Beard, John Munro, Eugene O'Keefe, Captain John Beaty, Ald. Farley, J. Davis (foreman Portland street fire reel) S. Davis (oferman Fortland street fire reef)
P. G. Close, Ald John Turner, ex-Ald Dill,

Piugle, J. F. Cross, John Hav, and many other lights of the party. The men put up were:

James Beaty, Q.C., by Ald. Boswell, Christopher Washington Bunting, by W. H. Knowlton and Darcy Boulton.
Besides these two, Hon. A. P. Macdonald, the chairman, and Ald. Clark [by Ald. Tvrner] were also nominated but withdrew. The question arose, would Mr. Bunting accept? No one was able to say that he would, but his friends insisted on his name going before the meeting. The waters thereupon began to be troub'ed, but Ald. Boswell poured oil upon them by saying that his friend Bunting had told him that he wished to get the nomination in the east, and that if he was rejected in the convention in the west, his nomination in the east, and that it he was rejected in the convention in the west, his name would not stand so well in the east whereon his heart was set. But still Mr. Knowlton insisted on Mr. Bunting's claims. Mr. E. F. Clarke asked brother Knowlton Mr. E. F. Clarke asked brother Knowlton if he had brother Bunting's consent. He answered by asking if anyone had Mr. Beatty's consent. A delegate from St. Apdrew's ward informed the convention that he had asked Mr. Bunting if he wanted the west and how much he would give for it. [Cries of Oh! and laughter.] In the meantime Capt. Boomer took Mr. Knowlton into a corner and reasoned with him. Thereafter Mr. Knowlton withdrew Mr. Bunting's name, as he was not aware that Mr. Bunting wanted the east. After a little further parleying Mr. Beaty was made the nanimous choice. A committee was desunanimous choice. A committee was despatched to acquaint Mr. Beaty with the fact and to request his presence. He was soon forthcoming, he was warmly received, "the breaches were healed" and "the ranks closed up," and speeches of organization and congratulation indulged in.

THE $800 SNATCH

Mention has already been made in these columns of the piece of sharp practice of three strangers, who on Thursday entered & Challis in Wellington street and got away with $272 in cash and $525 in checks. The steal was made while Mr. Lee was engaged waiting on a customer. It was thought that the thieves went east, and the police telegraphed to the various points between here and Montreal. G. T. R. Detective Flynn went east on Thursday night. At Whitby three men got on the train, but appeared to be strangers. However, on the road down they frequently spoke to each other. When the train reached Kingston, Detective Sullivan, Chief of Police Horsey and Detective Flynn arrested the three men. They gave their names as Joseph Miller, Chas. Webb and Charles Wilson. Miller and Webb were elegantly dressed and had valuable gold watches, chains and state of the brewers was laid before the meeting yesterday afternoon, and the feeling was provided that the brewers of the city anent the price of lager beer. A full report of the first meeting, and also the circuler sent out by the brewers to The retail liquor dealers was puplished in the World of last Tuesday.

The retailers' committee met the brewers in the Walker house yesterday morning and had a lengthy conference. The brewers recaded a step from their first decision and offered a discount of five per cent to the retailers in lieu of the former privileges, viz., discounts, free ice, taps, vents, refrigerators, etc. The decision of the brewers was laid before the meeting yesterday afternoon, and the feeling was The steal was made while Mr. Lee was en-

And so the matter stands.

with the electors, his opposition to the na tional policy would kill the party whose iews he enunciates as dead as a herring! [From the Woodstock Sentinel-Review (Lib.).] Both as to form and substance mmends itself to fair-minded men of both parties. It bears upon it the impress of truth and right, of an honest man and patriotic statesman, and it has in it a ring of hope, of confile nce and of victory. It is a call to arms that will be readily and enthusiastically responded to. [From the Cobourg World (Lib.).]

We believe that a fair consideration of Mr. Blake's able paper, with his fearless arraignment of the government, and his proposed course if returned to power, will induce all really independent electors to support him in the person of his representative, the reform nominee for this riding.
[From La Patrie, Montreal, (lib.)]

[From the Monetary Times.] The issue, as stated by both parties, is on the merits of the tariff; and the decision must of course be on its general merits. Mr. Blake reminds us that the present impossible; but in restoring the equilibrium between the revenue and the expenditure, they did, it must be admitted, a statesmanlike and necessary thing. During the week there was announced the formation of a national party, containing some prominent names in Toronto. This party declares the tariff a dead issue. Its members are all between the militia if necessary.

of the national policy who are very decidedly in earnest, and they desire to know exactly where they stand. They believe that safety is to be found only on one side, and in that side they put their trust. They see this broad fact, that one side supports the tariff and the other opposes it; and they believe that the exceptions may betray a fear that a lost cause is being adhered to at the risk of defeat.

Three months ago I returned from Mobile, Ala., and was immediately attacked with what is known as sociate showers in the west in the control of the control what is known as sciatic rheumatism. I employed three physicians in successio giving each one ample time to afford relief if it had been in his power. I was not materially benefited by their services and materially benefited by their services and was beginning to despair, when a friend who had experienced the effects of St. Jacobs Oil advised me to give it a trial. I refused, because I did not think rheumatism could be cured by any outward application. Insisting upon a trial of it he sent me two bottles. Unable to meet this kindness by further refusal, I had the remedy applied to the parts affected. But before the first bottle had been used up, I began to be relieved of the painful lameness in my hip and knee, and when the second bottle was out, I could dress myself and walk about. I continued to use it, and am now able to go down to my office and attend to business. Should persons afflicted as I was, desire a stronger testimonial, I shall tell them, if they shall call upon me, to give St. Jacobs Oil a fair trial; and I now feel as though I could assure them the same grateful and sneedy trial; and I now feel as though I could assure them the same grateful and speedy relief I have experienced.
