She Will Maintain Her Plain Rights in Africa, But Looks for a Reconci-liation of Interests. WOOD AND BROOM INDUSTRIES. Paris, April 6 .- M. Hanotaux, Ministe

SATURDAY MORNING APRIL 6 1895.

Paris, April 6.-M. Hanotaux, Minister of Foreign Affairs, spoke in the Senate last evening concerning Sim-Edward Grey's statement in the House of Com-mons last week. The debate in the Commons as to the British and Egyp-tian sphere of influence in Africa, he said, had astonished him. France op-posed decidedly the pretensions of the Royal Niger Company, which aimed to monopolize trade in a vast region. The negotiations as to the territory affect-ed by the company's claims were now in progress. As to the Upper Nile re-gion, France demanded that England state her claims explicitly. France would monopolize trade in a vast region. The meding washboards who earn as little ed by the company's claims were now thin tamines working in our shoop and the territory affect ed by the company's claims were now the signard statement so the Upper Nile region. France would that England statement scate her claims explicitly. France would that England state her claims explicitly. France would that england's rely. It was differents. France would maintain her plain rights. He preferred, however, not to make any affirmations likely to him der the present negotiations. He was to make any affirmations likely to him the trade at the state and the present negotiations. He was to make any affirmations likely to him should come, the two great nations would ind means of reconciling their interests with those of civilization and progress.
 Why No Mention of the Expedition?

larity. With a view to complete reorganizes tion the trustees of Upper Canada Cols lege have handed every member of the teaching staff notice to vacate their positions at the end of three months. There are two reasons why this step has been taken. First and foremost, it was adopted as an easy and grazeful mode of getting rid of Principal Dickson. Mr. Dickson, the trustees admit, is an able and capable man, but for some rea-son which they decline to state he has become exceedingly unpopular, and as a consequence his usefulness has greatly diminiahed.

consequence his usefulness has greatly diminished. The second reason is that the present teaching staff is too large. Three years ago there were 285 students at the col-lege; now there are only about 200. Notwithstanding this reduction the nums ber of the staff has been maintained. The serving of notices to the whole staff was a purely formal proceeding: There is every probability that most of the teachers will be re-engaged when the notice expires. It is also understood that the present occasion will be grasped by the Govern-ment to take measures to place the in-stitution on a more satisfactory basis. Principal Dickson was interviewed by a. World reporter yesterday, and made the following statement:
