

THE SARAH RASPBERRY.

AMONG the new fruits distributed last spring among the members of our Association for testing, was the Sarah raspberry, plants of which were kindly furnished by the Director of the Central Experimental Farm at Ottawa. We give a cut of this berry and description from the last report of the Horticulturist, Mr. John Craig.

FIG. 6.—SARAH.