Sparkles.

To a waiter belongs the proud distinction of uttering what is probably the most ungrammatical sentence ever evolved from the brain of illiterate man. One afternoon an old man took his seat at the table and gave his usual order to a new and rather case-hardened knight of the napkin. "Waiter," he piped, as the dishes were slammed down before him, "this beef isn't sufficiently underdone." With a smile of contempt the servitor bore the viands back to the kitchen window and returned a moment later without having changed them. "I'm sorry, sir," he said, "we ain't got no beef what's underdone!"

THE work done by an entry clerk in a first-class business house in the busy season is enormous, but then he has an Esterbrook pen to aid him.

THE tramp has his best time in hot weather. He is not forced to suffer by the cold world.

GENTLEMEN,—I have used Burdock Blood Bitters for my blood and for pimples, and two bottles made a complete cure of my case. It is the only remedy I could find to help me. MISS JULIA VIGER, Trenton, Ont.

LITTLE DICK: There goes Johnny Smart on a safety. He's the brightest boy in town. Father: How so? Little Dick: He got himself a rich father. Father: Humph! I don't understand. Little Dick: Why his real father died, an' then an orful rich man got acquainted with his mother, but he didn't like Johnny; so Johnny he pretended he was sick and goin' to die; and then after the rich man married his mother, he got well.

WHY is a girl like an arrow? Because she is in a quiver until her beau comes, and then she is fast, sometimes.

THE season of green fruits and summer drinks is the time when the worst forms of cholera morbus, diarrhoea and bowel complaints prevail. As a safeguard Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry should be kept in the house. For thirty-five years it has been the most reliable remedy.

WHAT did Jack Frost say when he proposed to the rose-bud? Wilt thou? And it wilted.

My little boy was taken very bad with diarrhoea; he was very delicate and got so low we had no hope of his life, but a lady friend recommended Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and although he could only bear a few drops at a time he got well. It saved my child. MRS. WILLIAM STEWART, Campbellville, Ont.

WHEN may we suppose that men's hearts are stone? When they are a little bolder.

GENTLEMEN,—I have suffered very much from inflammatory rheumatism, which, through wrong treatment, left ugly running sores on my hands and feet. With these I suffered for seven years, during which time I had neither shoe nor stocking on. I commenced using B. B. B. externally and internally, using the pills also, and I can say now that the sores are entirely cured, and I have been for some time. I believe the bitters were the means of saving my life. MRS. ANNIE BARR, Crewson's Corners, Acton P. O., Ont.

WHAT did the muffin say to the toasting-fork? You're two-pointed.

DEAR SIR,—I had for years been troubled with dyspepsia and sick headache, and found but little relief until I tried your Burdock Blood Bitters, which made a perfect cure. It is the best medicine I ever had in my life, and I will never be without it. HATTIE DAVIS, Clinton, Ont.

WHAT is the most astonishing thing on a steamboat? A walking-beam.

ALL who have the care of children should know that Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry may be confidently depended on to cure all summer complaints, diarrhoea, dysentery, cramps, colic, cholera infantum, cholera morbus, canker, etc., in children or adults.

WHY is love like a canal boat? Because it is an internal transport.
