to British rule, and, with Governor Freeman's consent, one of my first acts was to raise the Houssa Corps from the nucleus of my private hunting gang. 1 collected the ablebodied runaway Houssa slaves from the interior, and from very crude material (with no assistance, whatever) I shaped out in a few weeks an efficient, well-knit force which did good service to the colony in the hour of need, within a month after being raised.

"The Colony of Lagos was then very young, and its resources extremely limited, and Governor Freeman could only allow me £300, or a pound a head, to equip 300 men, so their first arms were old flint condemned muskets of the year 1812, and matchets, or cutlasses; while their uniform consists of red woollen nightcaps and a pair of cotten short dramers. When incapacitated from the severity of my wound, 1 handed over the command of my Housea Force to Captain Mulliner, of the 3rd West India Regiment, and it was not until the following year that Lieutenant Glover, R. N., was appointed to

MANITOBA RIFLE ASSOCIATION MEETING. (From Manitoban, Sept. 20)

The first prize meeting of the Manitoba Rifle Association will begin at their ranges, St. Bonaface, on Thursday. 25th instant. the Council of the Association have been very energetic in making arrangements for a successful meeting, and have been so zealously supported by the public that they are able to offer a large number of prizes, as will be seen by the list published below.

Two targets have been put up on the Association ranges, which permit of firing at 600 yards ; but next year it is intended to increase the number and also to secure a full length range.

The shooting for the various prizes will, as far as possible, be in the order of publication; but the council will be governed by circumstances in regulating this matter.

The rules and regulations to be observed are calculated to meet every exigency that is likely to arise, and so secure fair play and good feeling amongst the competitors.

The ranges will be ready on Wednesday next, and parties desirous of practising can obtain all information necessary from the Secretary.
