

"And now, Mrs. Clayton," said Kate, who seemed to be mistress of ceremonies, "as Peggie has told you all about our Club, we will tell you that we have decided to make you the 'outward and visible sign' of our poppy lady who reigns in the spirit of our Club. We do beg you to be Our Lady of the Poppies."

With this, Kate handed Mrs. Clayton to the throne, then she turned to one of the other girls, who handed her something from a small box. It was a poppy pin, of gold and purple, like those worn by each girl. This Kate presented to the new lady, then all the girls crowded round her to be kissed. After this the formal ceremonies of the Club meeting began. Reports were read, a bit of business settled, then came Peggie's paper. "Our Lady" looked happily at her girls, as she now called them in her mind, as they sat in a semi-circle at the foot of her throne, and Peggie with shining eyes faced them, and read in her clear young voice:

Youths' Watches

It pleases us more to sell one reliable watch than a dozen of the ordinary kind. That is why so many people carry "Ryrie" watches.

One worthy of special mention is a Youths' Watch, No. 5542B (either Sterling Silver or Gun Metal Case), at $7.50.

We take special pains to see that every one of these watches will give the purchaser satisfaction.

$7.50 includes a silk guard, chamois Watch Pocket, guaranteed for two years and safe delivery.
