DEATHS.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

May 31.—Harriet McIntosh, in her 59th year.

IN MEMORIAM.

The news of the sudden death of the Rev. H. P. Lowe, for some time one of the clergy of this Parish, came as a great shock and a greater grief to all of us. Mr. Lowe had been in Calgary little more than a year, but his work there had prospered in an extraordinary degree. Every report we heard was of his success, and as all success brings with it increased responsibility, so the burden of that large Parish grew heavier. Never a strong man, Mr. Lowe shewed signs of breaking down under the weight, and when influenza attacked him it found a ready victim. No words of ours can comfort his desolate young wife, but the memory of his noble father will help to guide the steps of his little son. To the members of his family in this congregation we offer the deepest sympathy.

"Blessed are they which are called."—Rev. xix. 9.

"Sweet Souls! So patient that they make no moan,
 So calm in journey that they seem at rest,
 So rapt in prayer that half they dwell in heaven
 Thankful for all which held and all things given;
 So lit by love that Christ shines manifest,
 Transfiguring their aspects to His own."

Parish Notes.

HOLY DAYS IN JUNE.—St. Barnabas' Day, June, 11th falls this year on the second Sunday after Trinity. Saturday, 24th June, being St. John Baptist's Day, and Thursday, 29th June, being St. Peter's Day, there will be celebrations of the Holy Communion at 8 a.m., and Morning Prayer and Holy Communion at 10 a.m.

On Wednesday evening, May 3rd, the rite of confirmation was administered by the Lord Bishop of this Diocese. The following are the names of those confirmed: Mrs. Tooze, Mrs. Reesor, Teresa Fern Anderson, Marion Eva Armour, Gladys Hester Banwell, Margery Sophia Banwell, Martha Davey, Annie Drew, Mary Kathleen Hagarty, Mildred Emily Hobbs, Gertrude Beatrice Moore, Helen Beatrice Nash, Florence Amy Notter, Edna Tipping Notter, Helen Elsie Thomas, Doris Baines, Dorothy Wintersgill, Myra Ruth Snow, Birdie Beacham, Maude Fleming, Minnie McMillan, Samuel Harman, Thomas Murdoch, Tyrrell Walker, David Graham, Gerard Muntz, and Harry C. Scarth.

On Wednesday evening, 17th May, a special service was held in preparation for the Holy Communion, and on Whitsunday, those recently confirmed received their first Communion.

On Thursday evening in the school house, the Rev. H. H. Bedford-Jones gave a lecture on Rudyard Kipling. The lecture, which was most entertaining, was listened to by a good audience and the proceeds were devoted to the expenses of the missionary work done by St. Agatha's Guild.

On Sunday morning, May 6th, the Ascension-tide Appeal for Domestic Missions was read. The appeal was short and to the point and brought forward the needs of our great unknown North-West in a very striking way.
