"Money is the Sinews of War."

It is also very essential to our existence in times of peace. No one can secure the necessities of life without money or its equivalent. Yet, notwithstanding how much it is needed, it is sometimes very difficult to obtain, and the supply frequently ceases entirely upon the removal of the breadwinner. Recognizing then the duty of making certain provision for the family in the event of such a contingency, the desirability of life insurance as a means to this end is at once self-evident. Now is the appointed time to attend to this matter; it may be impossible to do so later. The best forms of policy contracts are issued by the
