

NEWS AND NOTES.

ILL TEMPER

is more rapidly improved by relief from physical suffering than in any other way. Step on your friend's corn, and the impulse to strike is strongest. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, by quickly and painlessly removing them, insures good nature. Fifty imitations prove its value. Beware of substitutes. 'Putnam's,' sure, safe, painless.

How sweet, how passing sweet is solitude! But grant me still a friend in my retreat, Whom I may whisper, solitude is sweet. —Cowper.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. WINSLOW'S Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. 25c a bottle.

Love those who humble and contradict you, for they are more useful to your perfection than those who flatter you.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—The greatest boon to mankind discovered during the present century is Minard's Liniment, the instant remedy for all cramps, bruises, sprains, coughs, colds, quinsy, croup and diphtheria; it also allays pain in the back and limbs. There is nothing extant so good for the scalp and hair, as it removes dandruff and produces a fine silky growth of hair.

No activity in providing for future generations can atone for our inactivity in providing for our own generation, which first of all we are to serve, by the will of God, with the Gospel.—Pierson.

TO THE DEAF.

A person cured of Deafness and noises in the head of 23 years' standing by a simple remedy, will send a description of it free to any Person who applies to Nicholson, 177 McDougal street, New York.

The creed of a narrow man:—If a friend changes his mind, he is a traitor; if a stranger does not think as you do, he is a fool.

Mrs. Uriah Johnstone, of River Herbert, writes: 'Minard's Liniment cured me of a very sore nose, and also inflammation in the eyes. It is the cure-all and I believe it is the best inflammation allayer and pain killer in the world. It sells every day.'

A peace is of the nature of a conquest; For then both parties nobly are subdued, And neither party loser.

Wherever there is excessive wealth there is also in the train of it excessive poverty, as where the sun is brightest the shade is deepest.

When a writer says a certain thing is impossible to describe and then uses half a column in its description, he doubtless means that nobody but himself could describe it. Not so with Minard's Liniment, for when we say it is the King or Conqueror of all pains, we describe it in brief.

Hath any wronged thee? Be bravely revenged; slight it, and the work's begun; forgive it, and 'tis finished. He is below himself who is not above an injury.—Fraser Quarles.

Andrew King, Proprietor Metropolitan stables, Halifax, writes that he was confined to the house for several weeks with rheumatic gout, could not touch his foot to the floor; after trying all other remedies applied Minard's Liniment and it cured him in a few days. He says he believes it is the best Liniment in the world for man or beast.

Be of good cheer about death, and know this of a truth, that no evil can happen to a good man, either in life or after death.

Wastefulness is a sin.
