DIOCESAN SEMINARY FOR YOUNG LADIES.

> PATRON. The Most Reverend the Metropolitan.

VISITOR.

The Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia. 🔀 PRINCIPAL.

The Rev. John Padfield.

This School will re open January 12 The course of Instruction is the same as that of the best Schools in Enghand, and is founded upon the University Examinations for Women. Paulis are prejared to pass the Local Examinations of King's College, Windsor. Within the last two years, thirteen pupils have passed there Examinations, three of them gaining the title of "Associate of Arts."

A few students can be received, who, having finished their general clucation, wish to devote themselves to Music, Languages, or Art. Arrangements are made whereby they can give the whole of their time to these special subjects.

There is a Preparatory Department for Young Pupils. The Musical Department is under the care of a lady from the Royal Academy of Music, London. The French Governess is a native of Paris and has the Dijdoma of the French Academy. The Head English Governess, besides having passed the University of Cambridge Examinations for Women, has also a certificate from the South Kensington School of Art.

A large reduction is made for the daughters of clergytuen, and where two or more are sent at the same time from one family.
