

have so often done before, for the persecution of God's Church cannot be a matter of surprise, but that which is well calculated to excite astonishment is the moment, as regards the political position of England, at which Spooner's motion against Maynooth is brought forward.

England—Protestant England—is engaged in a serious war. Her only sure ally in that war is Catholic France. She stands in need of that ally, and it is her interest not to alienate that power from her, nor to do anything calculated to produce discontent amongst her Catholic subjects.

Spooner's motion against Maynooth is an insult to Catholic Ireland; an insult to Catholic France, an insult to every Catholic State in Europe.

To repeal the Maynooth grant would be to declare war against Catholic Ireland.

Perchance it may be supposed that such a war would be attended with no risk, as far as Catholics themselves are concerned; and if Ireland were to continue in the distracted position she has been from 1847 until now, we admit there would be no hazard encountered by its animosity or defying its hostility.

But the sad epoch of Catholic disunion is passing away. The worthlessness of those by whom it was excited, is seen through—the absurdity of their policy recognised; and a desire for peace and conciliation amongst themselves is growing up amongst the entire of the sound, honest, and right-thinking portion of the Catholic community.

Decided acts of hostility against us can but hasten and cement our union; and English statesmen ought to be aware that they are contending with a wily foe, who would not fall into the mistake once made by involuntary France, and seeing universal discontent in Ireland, permit it to evaporate in empty menaces.

Let English statesmen consult not their bigotry, but have a care for the safety of the empire. Let it not be said of them that, at the same moment, the sanctioned retreat from Sebastopol and—an advance upon Maynooth.

The debate upon Maynooth stands adjourned. Its assailants fancy they have not spoken half enough of insults against the Catholics of the empire. Run-aways from the strong and oppressors of the weak—land of Mormons and of Methodists—home of the Shaftesburys, and Stowells, and Commings nation of husband-poisoners and child-murderers—how Ireland and the Irish should respect you, and love you, and esteem you, and cling to you, in danger and difficulty, and prize the Union that binds her to you. Sycopants of a Catholic Emperor, even while you are persecuting, and slandering Catholic priests, this is your time to show baseness, your brutality, and your bigotry. Your Maynooth debate will be read by the civilized world, and whilst it notes your doings in Parliament it also comments upon your jobbing away for a worthless oligarchy the lives of your soldiers, and with triumph records your incapacity as a military power and your disgraceful discomfiture in the Crimea.

IMPROVED WAY OF MAKING BREAD.—The Paris Correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertiser speaks of a plan invented by a baker of the city to reduce the cost of bread. He puts in one part of rice to five of wheat flour, and the economy effected reaches the very considerable figure of one sou in the two pound loaf. The Government has had the bread examined by competent persons, and has authorized the sale of it, at a less rate than fixed by the police. The demand is such that the baker cannot supply it. Neither the nutriment nor the taste of the bread would appear to be affected by the presence of the new ingredient.

SAM SLICK'S STATISTICS.—Now, Doctor, I tell you what neither the English, nor the Yankees, nor the Colonists know anything of, and that is about the extent and importance of these North American Provinces under British rule. Take your pencil now, and write down a few facts I will give you, and when you are alone meditating, just chew on 'em.—First, there are four millions, of square miles of territory in them whereas all Europe has but three millions some odd hundred thousands, and our mighty, everlasting United States still less than that again. Canada alone is equal in size to Great Britain, France, and Prussia.—The maritime Provinces themselves cover a space as large as Holland, Belgium, Greece, Portugal, and Switzerland, all put together. The imports for 1845 were between ten and eleven millions, and the exports (ships sold included) between nine and ten millions. At the commencement of the American revolution, when we first dared the English to fight us, we had but too and a half, these Provinces now contain nearly three, and in half a century will reach the enormous amount of eighteen millions of inhabitants. The increase of population in the States is 33 per cent., in Canada 68. The united revenue is nearly a million and a-half, and their shipping amounts to 450,000 tons. Now, take these facts and see what an empire is here, surely the best in climate, soil, mineral, and other productions in the world, and peopled by such a race as no other country under heaven can produce.—Nature and Human Nature.

TEST OF A GOOD PROTESTANT.—At a judicial investigation at Balaklava, a witness, a sailor, was asked what his religion was. His reply was.—"I'm blowed if I know." Are you a Catholic?" said the examiner. "Oh, no," was the response, "I'm d—d sure I'm not that, for I hates the Pope like blazes, and I delights in steaks on Friday." [Roars of laughter.] The judges declared he was a Protestant.

A REMEDY.—In one of our Exchanges, it does not occur to us, which, we are told, that a youngster inadvertently swallowed a bullet much to the alarm of his father and friends, who at once despatched a messenger for the Doctor. The circumstances related and listened to without any apparent concern, the dispenser of pills wrote the following laconic note:—"Sir Don't alarm yourself. If in three weeks the bullet is not removed, give the boy a charge of powder, but take care he is not aimed at any body." This story takes our credence, while it awakes in our memory a strange circumstance connected with the swallowing of a leaden bullet, which we are in all truth cognizant of. A wild, dissolute character, named Williams, residing on the banks of the River Sabie, C.W. was afflicted with a squeaking and most repulsive voice. He was prevailed upon by a quack to swallow an ounce bullet—his voice was at once changed into keeping with the manly proportion of his person, and he suffered no ill effects therefrom.—Hamilton-Gazette.

WORMS! WORMS!
There is no disease more common among children, and yet none which so frequently baffles the skill of the physician, as worms. They are highly detrimental to the constitution; and their presence should be carefully guarded against by parents. On the first manifestation of symptoms, every means should be used to expel them promptly and thoroughly. M'LANE'S Vermifuge is well established as the most certain, safe and speedy remedy ever offered for this troublesome and dangerous malady; and all who have the management of children should keep this invaluable medicine at hand. In addition to its perfect safety, it never fails to produce the desired effect.

Purchasers will please be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE, and take none else. All other Vermifuges in comparison, are worthless. Dr. M'LANE'S genuine Vermifuge, also his Celebrated Liver Pills, can now be had at all the respectable Drug Stores in the United States and Canada.

NEW BOOKS IN PRESS.
THE SUBSCRIBERS take great pleasure in announcing to the Catholic Public, that they have made arrangements with Messrs. Burns & Lambert, the English Publishers, for duplicate sets of the Stereotype plates of the following works:—
THE POPULAR LIBRARY
Of History, Biography, Fiction, and Miscellaneous Literature, a series of works by some of the most eminent writers of the day; edited by Messrs. Capes, Northcote, and Thompson.
The Popular Library is intended to supply a desideratum which has long been felt, by providing at a cheap rate a series of instructive and entertaining publications, suited for general use, written expressly for the purpose, and adapted in all respects to the circumstances of the present day. It is intended that the style of the works shall be such as to engage the attention of young and old, and of all classes of readers while the subjects will be so varied as to render the series equally acceptable for Home use, Educational purposes, or railway reading.
The following are some of the subjects which it is proposed to include in the Popular Library, though the volumes will not necessarily be issued in the order here given. A large portion of the series will also be devoted to works of Fiction and Entertaining Literature generally, which will be interspersed with the more solid publications here named:—
Life of St. Frances of Rome; by Lady Georgina Fullarton, 2s 6d.
Heroines of Charity; with preface by Aubrey de Vere, 2s 6d.
Catholic Legends and Stories, 2s 6d.
The Witch of Melton Hill; a Tale; by the author of Mount St. Laurence, 2s 6d.
The following works are in immediate preparation, and will be completed in one Volume:—
A Popular Modern History; by Mathew Bridges, Esq.—Christian Missions—Japan, &c.; by Miss Cadell.—St. Dominic and the Dominicans.—St. Francis and the Franciscans.—St. Alphonsus and the Redemptorists; by J. M. Capes.—Blessed Paul of the Cross and the Passionists.—St. Francis of Sales; by R. Ormsby.—St. Ignatius and the Jesuits.—Eminent Men—Cardinal Ximenes, &c.—Bonneval; a Tale of Paris in 1645.—A Tale of the Charterhouse in the time of Henry VIII.—The Witch of Melton Hill; a Tale.—Reminiscences of my Mother; or Tales of the Reign of Terror; by Madame Woillez, author of the Orphan of Moscow. Translated from the French by Mrs. J. Sadlier.—Picture of Christian Heroism; with preface by the Rev. Dr. Manning.
The greatest want of the present day is books combining instruction and amusement, which Catholic Parents can safely place in the hands of their children. It now rests with the Catholic public, whether that want shall be supplied or not. We intend to issue the first volume of the Popular Library on the 15th of February, and will continue to issue a volume every month, for one year at least; and if we are only seconded in our efforts, we will continue the Series for years to come. But it depends entirely on the encouragement we receive. One thing is certain, that it is the duty of Catholics to encourage a project like this; by doing so they will enable us to multiply useful and entertaining books at a moderate price.
