THE GROWING EXCELLENCE OF SCIENCE.
Those who have seen only the early numbers of Science have a very imperfect idea of the present character of this periodical. . . . It has learned that there is a science of language, a science of literature, a science of history, a science of mind, a science of morals as well as the physical and natural sciences, and so aims to give its readers organized knowledge concerning whatever affects man."—Prof. E. A. STRONG, in Michigan Moderator.

"It has the fascination of a novel, with the value of a grammar; is concise, complete, clear and methodical, withal the best work of the kind extant."—Washington (Pa.) Reporter.
"Admirable for its very simplicity and naturalness. No person with an earnest, intelligent purpose can fail of obtaining the most satisfactory results."—Winona Republican.
"The system is so clear and perfect that those who have but an ordinary English education may readily grasp the professor's ideas."—Toronto Mail.
