

SAND SHOES TO OVERCOME HARDSHIPS OF DESERT.

"Dog cages" the Australian soldiers in Egypt call these queer looking contrivances. As a matter of fact, they are merely samples of wire "sand shoes" to aid the forces under General Maude and other British commanders in the negotiation of the deserts in that part of the World.

A PAGE OF NEWS PICTURES

Especially adapted for use in the Class Room of illustrating the current topics of the day

EUROPEAN ROYALTY OF TWENTY TWO, MANY IN GROUP NOW ENEMIES.

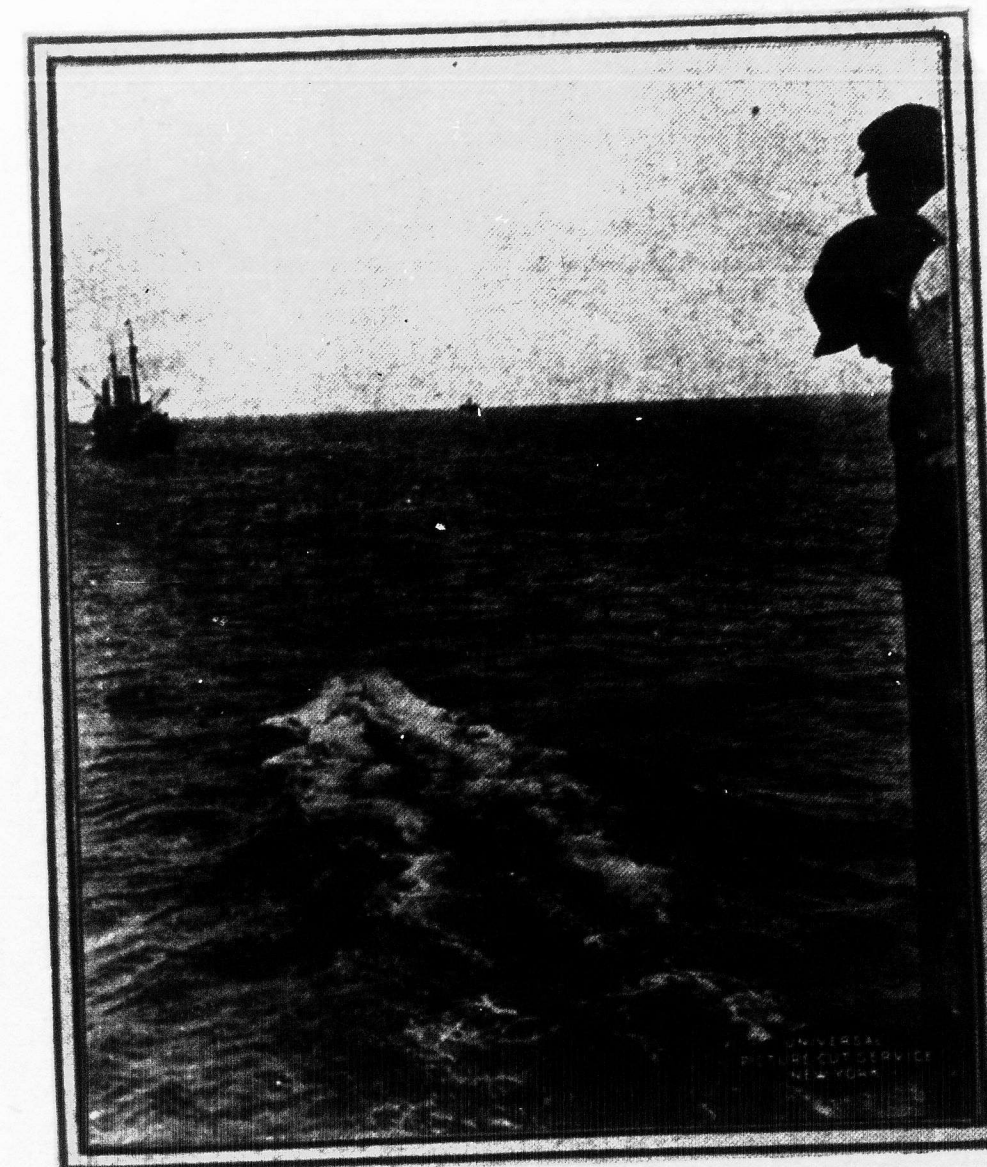

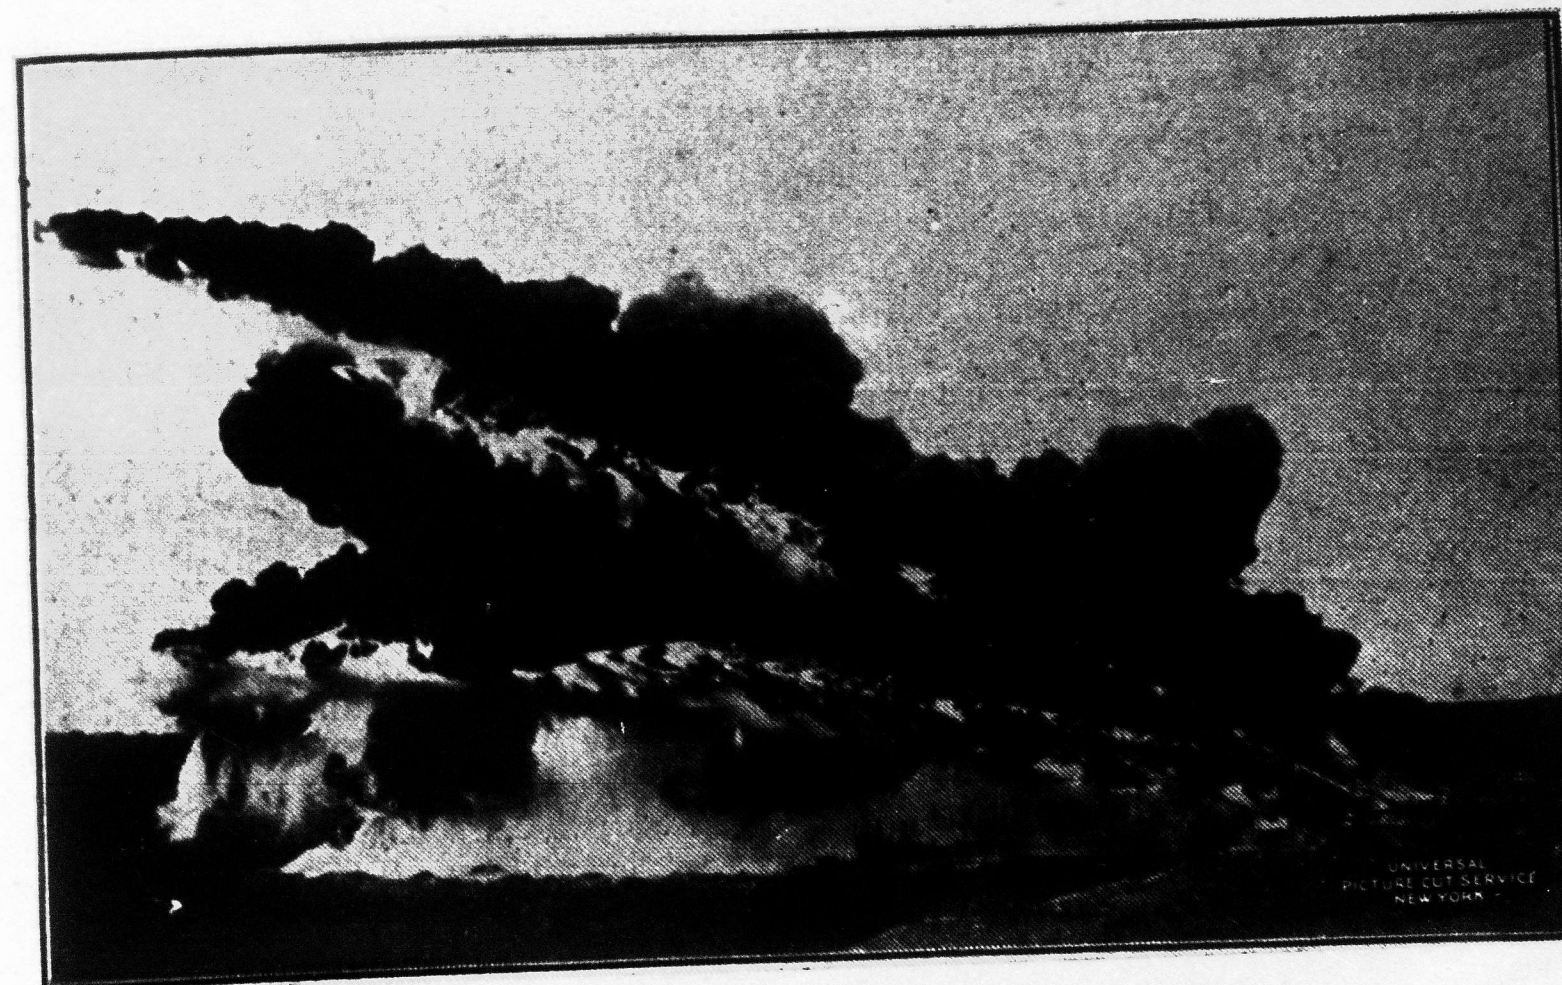

This photograph was made on the occasion of a royalty for celebration of Queen Victoria's birthday, more than twenty years ago. 1. Present King of England; 2. the late King Edward; 3. the Crown Prince of Germany; 4. the Ex-Czar dethroned and 5. the Ex-Czarina of Russia; 6. the Kaiser Wilhelm; 7. the Kaiser's daughter, the mother of the Kaiser; 8. Queen Victoria grandmother of the King of England.

OUR INTENTIONS — SAYS FRENCH MINISTER.

M. Painlevé Minister of War explaining his views to two of the leading generals. To left of Minister, General Petain Commander of French forces and to right General Fayolle. (Left hand side of photo.)

OTHERS.

Since the German gas attacks; the British in retaliation developed more deadly devices, the latest being burning oil throwers shown in photo, in use on the French Front. (Right hand side of photo.)

ACTUAL PHOTOGRAPH OF SUBMARINE ATTACK.

Photo shows clearly the wake of a torpedo that has barely missed the ship from which the picture was taken. The steamer by making a zigzag course was able to dodge the torpedo.