

CONTENTS

-
- 2 TIME TO CHANGE BY BOYCE RICHARDSON
An excerpt from a critical new book on how Canada must face up to emerging threats to international security.
-
- 6 CHINA'S ORDEAL BY HEPING
Decentralization may be China's last best hope.
-
- 8 LEADING THE HORSE TO WATER BY THOMAS G. WEISS
On the question of the UN, the United States still needs convincing.
-
- 10 PRISONERS AS PRESIDENTS BY HERIBERT ADAM
If Vaclav Havel can move from a prison cell to the presidency, why not Nelson Mandela?
-
- 12 MARKETS AND POLITICS IN THE USSR BY MICHAEL BRYANS
The Soviet leadership is groping towards a new economy that combines "socialist markets" with Western prosperity.
-
- 24 LETTER FROM PRAGUE BY VĚRA MURRAY
An exile from the 1968 Prague Spring goes home to Czechoslovakia's quiet revolution.
-

■ Boyce Richardson is a freelance writer and filmmaker based in Ottawa, and author of Strangers Devour the Land; Heping is the pseudonym of a close observer of Chinese politics; Thomas G. Weiss is visiting senior scholar at Brown University's Institute for International Studies and former executive director of the International Peace Academy in New York; Heribert Adam is professor of sociology at Simon Fraser University, and author, with Kogila Moodley, of South Africa Without Apartheid; Michael Bryans is editor of Peace&Security; Věra Murray is Moscow correspondent for L'Actualité magazine.

14 ARMS CONTROL DIGEST

15 DEFENCE NOTES

16 REPORT FROM THE HILL

17 REPORT FROM THE SECURITY COUNCIL

18 NEWS FROM THE INSTITUTE/RESOURCES

21 FROM THE DIRECTOR

22 REVIEWS
