

- (7) subject to any laws of INDIA, all necessary visas and all import or export permits, as the case may be, for the Canadian personnel and their dependants and for the personal effects of such Canadian personnel and their dependants;
 - (8) the prompt inland transportation of all equipment, products, materials, supplies and other imported goods required for the execution of projects, from the port of entry into the Republic of India to project sites, including where necessary, the obtaining of priority by Indian forwarding and transportation agents;
 - (9) permission from the relevant Ministry or Ministries in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations to use all means of communication such as high frequency radio transmitters and receivers approved for use in the Republic of India and telephone and telegraph networks, depending on the needs of a specific project; and
 - (10) reports, records, maps, statistics and other information related to projects and likely to assist Canadian personnel in carrying out their duties.
- II INDIA acknowledges that each member of Canadian personnel shall be entitled to annual leave according to the regulations of CANADA.
- III INDIA shall endeavour to ensure that fellowship holders whose studies are financed by CANADA return to work on the projects through which they were selected to receive such financed studies or are considered for employment by INDIA for a period of time equivalent to that of the financed studies.