

(ii) "dependents" means (a) spouses; (b) unmarried dependent children under 21, or under 25 if in full-time attendance at a post-secondary educational institution; and, (c) unmarried dependent children who are physically or mentally disabled;

(iii) "employment" means the carrying out by a dependent of work under a private contract of service, the independent practice of a profession or the independent operation of a private enterprise. Service of dependents in the Embassy or Consulates of the sending State or other states is not covered by and is in no way affected by this Agreement.

3. No restriction will be placed on the type of employment that may be undertaken. It is understood, however, that in professions where particular qualifications are required, it will be necessary for the dependent to meet those qualifications. Further, authorization to accept employment may be denied in cases where, for security reasons, only nationals of the receiving State may be employed.
4. Before a dependent may accept employment in the receiving State, the Embassy of the sending State will make an official request to the Protocol Division of the Ministry for Foreign Affairs. Upon verification that the person in question falls within the categories defined in this Agreement, and after observing applicable domestic procedures, the Protocol Division will promptly and officially
