

*Business of the HouseBUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

to us at the suggestion of the commissioners. As he well knows, three of those members are appointed by the city council. The city council has studied this bill. The penalty contained in the bill is considerably stiffer than it has been hitherto. We might try this and probably we should not place in the hands of the court as stiff a penalty as that suggested at this time.

Section agreed to.

Schedule agreed to.

Bill reported.

Mr. Fournier, Hull (for Mr. Chevrier) moved the third reading of the bill.

Motion agreed to and bill read the third time and passed.

Mr. Fournier (Hull) moved the adjournment of the house.

He said: Tomorrow we shall discuss the resolution in the name of the Minister of Veterans Affairs increasing the rate of pension for disability and death; then Bill No. 15, an act to provide for privileges and immunities in respect to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization; Bill No. 24, an act to amend the Public Printing and Stationery Act. If the select committee on railway legislation reports the railway bills, they will be called at the same time.

Motion agreed to and the house adjourned at 5.05 p.m.

END OF VOLUME I