

The Budget—Mr. MacNaught

section of agriculture—usually associated with anti-protection in this country—will be arguing for tariff aid against the United States.

I submit, Mr. Speaker, that this is hardly a correct statement of the facts. I should not want to be described as a person who is anxious to put any blocks in the way of free interchange of products between countries. That is why I took some time to set out that I thought the tariff arrangement between Canada and the United States was most one-sided. All the people of my province want is some equalization of the tariff, so the American potato growers will enjoy such tremendous advantages in tariff rates.

On motion of Mr. Drew the debate was adjourned.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Sinclair: Tomorrow we shall continue with this debate.

It being four minutes past ten the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
