TRIDENT AIRCRAFT LIMITED

Question No. 1,547—Mr. Munro (Esquimalt-Saanich):

1. Since January 1, 1980, did the government advance any money to the Trident Aircraft Limited in British Columbia and, if so (a) in what amount (b) were guaranteed loans for the corporation underwritten by the government (c) for what purposes?

2. Was Mr. Derrick Lock attached to the corporation and, if so, was he paid from public funds and in what amount?

3. Is Mr. Lock listed on the public service payroll for purposes of seniority, superannuation or for other public service privileges?

Mr. D. M. Collenette (Parliamentary Secretary to President of the Privy Council): I am informed by the Departments of Industry, Trade and Commerce and Regional Economic Expansion as follows:

1. (a) Since January 1, 1980, IT&C has paid to Trident $2,408,908 in the form of a repayable contribution.

- (b) and (c) Under the Canada-British Columbia Industrial Development Subsidiary Agreement, DREE has agreed to cost share with the province a low interest loan in the amount of $2.9 million to the British Columbia Development Corporation (BCDC) to finance the construction of 110,000 square feet of manufacturing space for Trident Aircraft Limited at the Victoria International Airport. This loan to B.C.D.C., who will build the space for Trident on a lease-back basis, has as one of its conditions the requirement that Trident must have all its financing in place before any disbursement will be made on the loan. As the condition precedent has not been met, no DREE funds have been disbursed to date under the terms of the agreement with BCDC for the Trident facility.

2 and 3. Mr. Derrick Lock is employed with Trident under the Public Service Commission's Interchange Canada Program. Mr. Lock's salary is paid by the Crown, with the company reimbursing the Crown for the full amount; Mr.

Lock of IT&C is in the commerce officer category at level 2, salary range $26,509 to $37,556.
