

joint Canadian-German fishing and fish processing efforts can resume.

As well as the political and economic visits and discussions, opportunities were provided for an appreciation of German cultural and historic features. These included excursions to Hornberg Castle, Heidelberg Castle, Charlottenberg Palace, as well as to the Reichstag and Checkpoint Charlie in West Berlin, and Lake Tegernsee in the State of Bavaria.

Mention should also be made of the cordial hospitality which the delegation was shown by the many German officials during the trip.

The delegation's trip was a definite success because it provided: a better knowledge of the German political system; encouragement for German investment in Canada; and a higher profile of Canada in Germany due to the media coverage of the trip. Funding for more such delegations in the future would undoubtedly be useful.

On motion of Senator Macquarrie, debate adjourned.

The Senate adjourned until tomorrow at 2 p.m.

---