me, I was told to push my University work to the limit. At present I see very good prospects of an honourable graduation as Ph.D in 1927 (if I am left here). My special contacts are with Prof. Macneil Dixon (English); Dr. Dawson (University Training Centre Psychology), Dr. Trish (History), and Alex. Haddadaw (English Head at the Training Centre).

You will be interested to learn that I have received several lecture invitations, chief among them an invitation to read a paper before the Royal Philosophical Society (Historical and Philological Section), in October next.

We are enjoying our stay immensely.

With best wishes from Mrs. MacOdrum and myself—

Yours sincerely
—M. M. MacOdrum
