

ORIGIN.—The most Noble & Puissant Ld. Charls' How, El. of Lancaster, & Bn. How of Wormleighton 1st comler. of ye Treasury. 1st Genta. of ye bedchambr. to his Maj., Kt. of ye garter. & one of ye Govrs. of ye Chartr. house. Crestd. Bn. How of Wormton. in ye county of Warwick. Novr. 18, 1806, in ye 4th of James ye 1st, & El. of Lancaster, Jun. ye 8th, 1648, in ye 19th of Charls. ye 1st. of this famy. which deriva. themselves. from a youngr. branch of ye anta. Bns. How's. men fama. many ages since in Engd. among which where Hugh How ye father & Son great faverta. of Kn. Edwd. ye 2d., John How, Esqr. son to Jn. How of Hodinhull in ye County of Warwk.

ARMS.—He bear'th Gules, (Red) a Chevron (pointed arch) Argent, (Silver) between 3 crocresollets Or, (Gold) 3 Wolfe heads of ye Same crest on a wrath (or wreath) a Wyvern or Dragn. par'd. per pale Or & Vert (Green) pierced through ye mouth wih. arow, by ye Name of How, ye wolfs are ye fama. arms. ye cross. for gt. accis. don by ye 1st El.

The above is a fac simile of the original Coat of Arms said to have been brought from England by John Howe about 1630, and adorned the walls of the "Wayside Inn," or Howe Tavern, in Sudbury, for over 150 years.

Coat of Arms of Lord Chedworth, (Henry Frederick Howe).