

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
CHAP. I. Parentage and birth—Emigration to Canada—Childhood— Boyhood—College Course.....	9
CHAP. II. Ordination—Journeys with his father—Marriage—Set- tlement at Fredericton—Removal thence to Quebec.....	23
CHAP. III. Entrance on parochial work at Quebec—Appointment as Official—Journeys in that capacity, and with his father on visitations	41
CHAP. IV. Visitations as Archdeacon—McGill College—First visit to Gaspé.....	58
CHAP. V. Visit to England—Death of his father.....	80
CHAP. VI. Bishop Stewart—Labours in the parish of Quebec, for the diocese, and for different institutions.....	94
CHAP. VII. Second visit to Gaspé—Journey to York—Visitation of Eastern townships and district of Quebec.....	105
CHAP. VIII. Archidiaconal duties and journals, 1830.....	131
CHAP. IX. Journeys as Archdeacon continued, 1832.....	148
CHAP. X. Visitation of cholera at Quebec—Correspondence.....	158
CHAP. XI. Voyage to England in 1835—Consecration as Bishop of Montreal—Death of his mother.....	173
CHAP. XII. Return to Canada—Death of Bishop Stewart—Statistics of the diocese—Parochial labours—Visitation tour.....	182
CHAP. XIII. First visit, as Bishop, to Gaspé—Primary visitation of clergy—Visit to Upper Canada—Division of diocese.....	201
CHAP. XIV. Second triennial circuit—Anxiety for the establishment of a see at Montreal—Correspondence with the clergy at Red River —Severe illness—Formation of Church Society—Steps taken towards the foundation of Bishop's College—Second visitation of clergy	212
CHAP. XV. Third triennial circuit.....	226
CHAP. XVI. Visit to the Red River—Surplice question—Views on some other points—Manner of dealing with opposition—Corner- stone of Bishop's College laid—Visitation of clergy—Fires at Que- bec—Opening of Bishop's College—Pastoral letter.....	243