

- attitude of, on homestead, 203, 208
- Treat, P. J., on military bounties, 118, 119
- Trumbull, Lyman, 230
- Turner, F. J., Rise of New West, 19 (note 1); on sectionalism, 133, 134; on influence of frontier, 249
- Twenty per cent. proviso (1841), 58 seq. (maps), 66 seq., 73, 74, 77 seq., 84, 93
- Tyler, John, reasons for nomination (1840), 48, 49; land policy, 49; becomes President, 51; Whig distrust of, 51, 52; rivalry of, with Clay, 52; message on distribution (1841), 53; Whig and Democratic criticism of, 53-55; recommends suspension of distribution act, 74, 75; vetoes "Little Tariff," 79 seq.; vetoes "Great Tariff," 82; policy of, analyzed, 80, 84 seq.; correspondence of, 252, 253.—See also Harrison, Southern Whigs, etc.
- Van Buren, campaign of 1840, 38, 40; land policy (1848), 137 seq.; correspondence of, 252, 253
- Virginia, 49, 69, 93
- "Vote Yourself A Farm," 109, 110, 111 (note 48)
- Wade, Benjamin F., 174 (note 25); speech on Cuba bill, 195; tries to fix day for vote on homestead bill, 203; moves to substitute House homestead bill for Senate bill, 208 (map), 209, 210
- Wait, W. S., 135, 136
- Walker, Isaac P., 146
- Walker, of Wisconsin, 141 (note 41)
- Walker, Robert J., resolutions on public lands, 56; insists on bankrupt bill, 63; advocates graduation, 128
- Walsh, Mike, 105
- Washington, 211
- Washington Constitution*, 217
- Washington Correspondence* of newspapers, importance of, 252
- Washington Globe*, 45, 46, 47
- Washington Union*, 179, 180
- Webster, Daniel, 40, 82 (note 51); land policy of, 125; introduces homestead resolution, 142 (note 42); correspondence of, 242, 253
- Wellington, R. G., Political and Sectional Influence of the Public Lands, 27 (note 25), 55, 73 (note 1)