

We have to shoot, or sin will loot—
Both plunder and outrage us so.

Heroic deeds! are not mis-deeds
To take advantage of a foe;
But deeds to save and make behave,
The criminals that murder so.

Heroic deeds! while heaven pleads
For righteousness and Victory
Will make the Hun-invader run
To hide his wicked treachery.

Heroic deeds! with reverence pleads
That good may come from bravery;
When brave we are, to lash the spar,
To save men's souls from slavery.

Heroic deeds! though courage bleeds
Advancing Sacred Principles,
Will stir the heart to do its part
In mounting many obstacles.

Heroic deeds! now intercedes
For Principles, for God and right;
And are a plea, for liberty,
And crushing autocratic Might.

Heroic deeds! the student reads
Recorded in the halls of fame,
Where sculptured are the worthy Tar
And others, who have won a Name.

Heroic deeds! will crush the Greeds
Monopoly and trusts imbibe,
