

CONTENTS

OF VOL. II.

CHAPTER XIII.

New York Elections.—Vote by Ballot.—Annual Offices.	Page
—Restricted qualification of Blacks.—Its origin.—Fire, Firemen, and Fire-offices.—Fugitive Slaves.—City Gaol.
--Ex-sheriff Parkins.—Anecdote of Runaway and Master.
—Remarkable generosity in a Woman of Color.—Spanish and American pride compared.—National Abolition Society.—American Quarterly Review versus the Free
Blacks	1

CHAPTER XIV.

Law-suits.—Arbitration.—Commercial Morality.—Greek Frigates.—Tricks of Trade.—Heroism of a black Boy.—
Stage-coach Law.—Schoolboy claimed as Property.—
Sympathy of African race.—Bordentown.—American Honesty.—Philadelphia.—Baltimore.—Whites purchased by Blacks.—Expatriation	37

CHAPTER XV.

Washington City.—Gadsby's.—Capitol.—Two Houses of Congress.—Interview with Cherokee Chiefs.—Treatment of Slaves by Indians.—Causes of Extermination of Aborigines.—Indian Character misrepresented.—Gold Mines.	