TRANSCAUCASIA AND ARARAT. By JAMES BRYCE,
Author of 'The Holy Roman Empire.' Being Notes of a Vacation Tour in the Autumn of 1876. With Illustration and Map.

The Times says:—"He has produced a very interesting volume, full of information.... In Prof. Bryce's bold ascent of Mount Ararat alone, when Kurds and Cossacks alike deserted him, we have a feat of mountain climbing which in itself proves him to be an unworthy member of the Alpine Club. This alone would render his book well worth reading, quite apart from the store of information contained in it."
