

all directions in these matters which may be given by the General Synod.

3. The Council shall consist of the Bishops of the Upper House and of two clergymen and two laymen elected by each Diocesan Synod at each regular meeting thereof, together with any executive officers, who may be appointed by the Council. In any Diocese where there is no Diocesan Synod, the Diocesan representatives shall be appointed by the Bishop.

4. The Council, of which the Primate shall be ex officio Chairman, shall meet at least once a year, at such time and place as it may determine, and have power to fix its own quorum, to frame regulations for the discharge of its duties, to appoint such officers as may be deemed expedient and to regulate the powers, duties, and emoluments, if any, of such officers.

5. The Council shall appoint an Executive Committee, which shall consist of three Bishops, three clergymen, and three laymen to promote the work and interest of the Department in every way open to them under the power and instructions given to them by the Council, to conduct the business of the Council in the intervals of its meetings, provided that this Executive Committee shall not officially approach any Legislature seeking restrictive legislation without having the endorsement of the Council. The Committee shall meet at such time and places as it may determine, and shall report to the Council at each meeting thereof. The Council may appoint a sufficient number of its members who shall represent the Church in the Social Service Council of Canada.

6. The Council shall from time to time determine what money will be required for its work, including its share of the cost of the Social Service Council of Canada, and arrange for the raising of the same, either by agreement with the several Dioceses, or otherwise, as may be determined by the Council.

7. The morning of the sixth day of the General Synod shall be devoted to the consideration of the Report of the Council and of problems connected therewith, when all questions of general policy shall be determined.

8. The Council shall submit a report to each Diocesan Synod, to each Provincial Synod, and to the General Synod at their regular meetings.

9. Until the Synods of the several Dioceses shall have elected representatives, the Council shall consist of the Bishops of the Upper House and of two clergymen and two laymen from each Diocese, appointed by the Bishop of the Diocese.

10. Subject always to Provincial, Diocesan and parochial authorities, the Council shall have power to organize such subsidiary branches as may be found necessary.
