Despite the scare heading in an Despite the scare heading in an be easier to accompalish their object in the checker-board system of municipal government is too absurd to call for comment, and it is plainly adopted in this case by the Henry George people simply because they think—and, indeed, some of them assert that—it will be easier to accompalish their object in be easier to accomplish their object in that way. Just thing of a lot of little ing the switches on the implied wish of Chairman Leitch. The solicitor acting for the Metropolitan Railway, as well as Mr. Helimuth, K.C.; Mr. Gbson and everybody present at Wednesday morning's meetings understand that the whole matter rests in abayance, pending another meeting, when Chairman Leitch and the other members of the board will be present. There is not the least desire or intention on the part of anybody up here to allow the switches to go in, but on the other hand the management are too well aware of the temper of the townspecture approval of a minority of the board.

The only real solution of the trouble ple to try anything so deastic with is the annexation of the town by the otty and the some try and the some try and the some try and the some tribs is consummated. How It Worked Out.
