The man drove immediately in front of the engine, which was going at a fair rate of speed. The auto was carried about forty feet and smashed to atoms. An inquest was opened, but was adjourned until Tuesday night, when the trainmen will testify.

GERMANS TO DRAIN RUSSIA OF FABRICS

Masses Oppose Shipments of Needed Supplies to Enemy.

RESISTANCE PROBABLE

Riots of Bolshevik Troops Occur Because of Exports.

Stockholm, Sept. 13. — German despatches received in Sweden speak of the commercial agreement between Germany and soviet Russia in the same general terms as those employed by the Bolshevik press. These despatches maintain the same degree of secrecy concerning the details as that which M. Joffe, the Bolshevik ambassador, preserved when he made his flying trip from Berlin to Moscow to complete the agreement.

The masses in Russia were displeased by the arrangement, because they knew it contemplated the sale of goods so badly needed by the Russians, and especially the transfer to Germany of the fabrics which the soviet government had confiscated in great quantities in Moscow and Petrograd.

The Germans also are apparently dissatisfied with the agreement because their efforts to ship goods have been so fiercely resisted, and they believe Germany will have the same trouble in this case that she encountered in the Ukraine. In other words, they seem to feel that the Bolsheviki do not expect to abide by their treaty.

Checking Exports.

Even before Madrid Spiridonova made her exposures concerning the German plans to deprive Russia of the cloth, leather and food it needs so badly, the Russian laborers and railway men were effectively checking large movements of goods to Germany. In Petrograd the dock laborers refused to load ships with goods that were billed for Sweden, but clearly intended for the Germans. Trainmen sidetracked suspected cars and refused to haul them to Pskov.

Less than a month ago Bolshevik troops at Orsha rioted because a trainload of cloth was about to pass across the German lines, asserting that they would advertise the fact thruout Russia if the Germans persisted in taking away Russian fabrics.

The situation became so grave that the Germans abandoned their plan to ship the fabrics. Small shipments may slip thru, but the large consignments escape the laborers with difficulty and the circumstances are so widely discussed in meetings that even the close press censorship does not prevent wide publicity.

Prisoners' Exposures.

For some time the officials defended shipments to Germany on the ground that the foodstuffs and cloths were for Russian prisoners, but the returned prisoners told such terrible stories of their privations that the Russian masses refused to accept the explanation which was denounced as a pretext of corrupt officials charged with passing goods for a consideration.

Millions of yards of cloth are locked in the Moscow and Petrograd storehouses, closely watched by agitators, and the soviet government risks its existence if it allows the Germans to ship wholesale lots at a time when the masses are clothed in rags and are facing the approach of winter thus and without bread and fuel.

Gold Shipments.

The Russian public is in the dark as to the gold payments the soviets agreed to make to Germany. The rumored amount varies from 3,000,000,000 to 5,000,000,000 rubles. The whereabouts of the Russian gold reserve is a mystery and many bankers doubt whether any considerable amount remains to meet the German claims. The state bank has not made a complete report since the Bolsheviki seized the government and the statements of the minister of finance made so far are described by Russian bankers as "a list of liabilities on one side of the sheet and printing presses on the other."

No authoritative statement is available as to the actual amount of paper money in circulation, but the sum is probably not less than 50,000,000,000 rubles.

When the Bolsheviki evacuated Petrograd last February a train was sent to Nizhni-Novgorod, carrying various securities of the state bank and and money, the whole being said to amount to 72,000,000,000 rubles. The Bolsheviki boasted that this was the richest train on record. These securities undoubtedly have been scattered widely because of the reported political uprisings in Nizhni-Novgorod, and the value of many of the securities is probably doubtful because of the absolute industrial paralysis of the country.

BAD WEATHER PREVENTS BRITISH FROM FLYING

London, Sept. 13.—The following official communication dealing with aviation was issued tonight:

"On Sept. 12 a strong wind, low clouds and heavy rains prevailed thruout most of the day. Enemy aircraft were not active.

"Our own machines engaged in patrol and artillery observation work had to contend with most unfavorable weather conditions and could fly only at low altitudes. During the brighter intervals some photographs were taken and several reconnaissances were successfully carried out. One of our machines is missing.

"At night no flying was possible."

WOODSTOCK CASUALTY LIST.

Woodstock, Sept. 13.—Three killed, one missing and three wounded was this city's casualty list today. Pte. Elmore Burgess, formerly of the post-office staff; Henry Turner, and Frank Gladwish are reported killed, the latter leaving a wife and two small children. Pte. Wm. Eggleton is reported missing.

STRIKE POSTPONED.

Washington, Sept. 13.—Postponement of the threatened strike of puddlers employed in steel mills in eastern Pennsylvania and New York was announced today after the national war labor board had agreed with officials of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Tin and Steel Workers to hold a hearing on the men's grievances next Thursday at Philadelphia.

BOLSHEVIKI HOLD PRINCE ON CONSPIRACY CHARGE

London Sept. 13.—Prince Peter A. Kropotkin has been arrested at Petrograd, charged with participating in an English conspiracy against the Bolshevik government, according to an Amsterdam despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

Prince Peter Alexeivitch Kropotkin, famous as a scientist and geographer, was arrested in 1874 for his revolutionary activities, and confined in the fortress of St. Peter and Paul, from which he made his escape in 1876. After living in many countries, mostly in England, Prince Kropotkin was enabled to return to Russia in 1915 by an amnesty ukase of the then Emperor Nicholas.

The prince has since been outspoken in his antagonism to the Bolsheviki, and early in January of this year a report was received in New York that he had been arrested, but this report lacked confirmation.

ANTI-LOAFING LAW WILL BE EXTENDED

Order-in-Council Gives Chief Commissioner of Police Wider Powers.

Ottawa, Sept. 13.—Steps were taken by the government today to secure wider application of the anti-loafing law. By order-in-council, the chief commissioner of Dominion police is charged with the enforcement of the law in all localities where, in his opinion, the provisions of the law have not been effectively and uniformly enforced.

The chief commissioner is empowered to appoint such special officers thruout the Dominion as he may consider necessary for the purpose of assisting him in the discharge of this duty. It is further provided that "such special officers may be charged with such other duties in connection with the functions of his office as he may from time to time determine."

Nothing in the new regulations, it is expressly stipulated, is to take away or affect the power or duty of any province or local authority to enforce the provisions of the anti-loafing law.

Many local authorities thruout the Dominion, it is pointed out, have failed to enforce the anti-loafing law effectively. More effective and uniform enforcement is considered necessary for the purpose of securing greater production of goods and supplies urgently needed for the prosecution of the war.

PROVISION MADE FOR AN APPEAL

Commissioner Says Order Will Be for One Month, Renewable Till July.

Ottawa, Sept. 13.—A more detailed and definite statement by Commissioner Pringle as to his intention to issue a new order before October 1, fixing a new price for newsprint, and the announcement that the inquiry would be adjourned from today until Monday, Sept. 23, when the commissioner hopes that the publishers will be represented, were the features of the resumed newsprint inquiry this morning. The commissioner explained today that the new order would be for thirty days, but that it would be renewable from month to month, probably until July 1, 1919. The order, he said, could not constitute a hardship for anybody concerned, because of the fact that provision has been made for a reference to an appeal tribunal in case either the publishers or the manufacturers are not satisfied with it.

It was agreed to receive the reports made by the accountants who had conducted an inquiry as to the cost of producing paper at the half-dozen mills selected for this purpose some months ago. They showed that the highest cost of production was at the Fort Frances mills, the figure being $62.89 per ton of newsprint, while the lowest cost was at the Laurentide mills, where newsprint is produced for $39.36 per ton.

After some discussion as to the basis on which the capitalization of the companies should be considered, the inquiry was adjourned until September 23.

ANTI-JEWISH AGITATION IN CENTRAL EMPIRES

New York, Sept. 13. — Systematic agitation in Vienna and thruout Austria to "inflame the Christian population and to provoke them to excesses against Jews" was disclosed here tonight by the Zionist organization of America in making public a resolution unanimously adopted by the council of the Jewish community of Vienna.

The resolution records a "most solemn protest" against the laxity of the authorities in tolerating "the anti-semitic agitation" which reached its climax in West Germany, where "crowds were directly incited to pogroms against the Jews."

The resolution declares that "Jews of Austria have done their full share in bearing the burdens of the war, and that all charges against them are groundless."

KAISER MAKES SPEECH IN WHIMPERING TONE

Paris, Sept. 13.—Commenting on the speech of Emperor William to the workmen at the Krupp munition works at Essen which was reported in despatches from Amsterdam Thursday, the newspapers declare the emperor endeavored to brace up the shaken spirits of the German people and to fight the defeatist elements. The Petit Parisien says: "The emperor gave up his grandiloquent tone to adopt a whimpering tone. He does not speak any more of the antagonism of the Germans toward the Anglo-Saxons."

Figaro says: "There was not a word in the speech which was not either an inhuman sneer or a lie for slaves, and this in an atmosphere of bitterness and discouragement."

Most Overseas Men.

Of the above list practically all officers of the headquarters staff have seen service overseas and the majority have been specially recalled to fill appointments on the Siberian force. The same applies to infantry regimental officers. Of the nine artillery officers five have served overseas and four have been specially recommended by the commander, Petawawa Camp. The personnel of the artillery and ammunition column as a whole is particularly well balanced and highly efficient, according to the official statement. All the machine gun officers and senior engineers officers have served overseas. Officers of the administrative services have been drawn in part from overseas and in part collected in Canada, owing to special technical qualifications. Further appointments will be announced later.

In view of the appointment of Col. H. C. Bickford, C.M.G., to the Canadian expeditionary force, Siberia, cable correspondence is in progress with the object of securing the return to Canada of a well-known senior officer to assume command of military district No. two. During the interval Major-General W. A. Logie, C.B., at present specially engaged in connection with problems of demobilization, will return to Toronto and resume, temporarily, command of the district.
