

++++

on

Scotch

t down Inlaid

noise-

u were

ss—no

mem.

it goes

of 47c

office.

ibbed 1

e lino-

rantee,

invest-

78c

+++++

Fur-lined

Does

that there

45.00

39.50

B5c

ns.

5.00

5.95

140

large girdle

3.99

+++++

bck=1

rain in 4

goes +

ason.

19.50

+++++

and McKay

back stay,

1.45

1.00

urday,

19th.

.90

·Is

011. ere for L EIGHT PAGES-MONDAY MORNING JANUARY 21-EIGHT PAGES

BELOVED QUEEN ON HER DEATH-BED

MEMBERS OF HER FAMILY AROUND HER

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN LONDON TO MEET THE GERMAN EMPEROR

The Heir-Apparent Was Requested by the Queen to Make the Journey-His Royal Highness Not Well-Kaiser and His Uncle Met at Charing Cross.

London, Jan. 21.-Thruont the United Nelson's monument, in Trafaigar Square. Indisposition of the Prince of Wales, Preventing Him From Reaching Osborne, is Eingdom yesterday was a Sunday of anx- Thru this lane moved a procession of royal and suspense. No one in England out- carriages, each bearing two footmen side the circle of the court knew the real yellow livery behind. The carriage entercondition of the Queen or the nature of ed the railway station and drew up near her disease. The bulletins threw but lit- the track. her disease.

the light on the universal question whe- The Prince of Wales arrived just before ther death was imminent. The London the train entered the station, which was ther death was imminent. The Hondon the train the Duke of York, Prince newspapers had not learned that Her Ma-at 6.20 p.m. The Duke of York, Prince Albert of Schleswig-Holjesty had suffered a shock of paralysis. stein and Prince Arthur of Connaught com-Extra editions of the Sunday papers conned no information beyond the official pleted the group of royal personages.

bulletins, but there were many of them, Salutations When They Met. Emperor William stepped out of a saloon and they were eagerly bought. car, wearing a traveling suit and a soft There were small gatherings in the vicinity of Buckingham Palace and Mari- hat. He saluted the Prince of Wales by borough House, as well as other centres kissing him on both cheeks, and the Prince Conversed by Telephone.

Prayers in All the Churches.

where the bulletins were posted. Crowds returned a similar salutation. He then emembled to witness the arrival of Empraced the Duke of York and shook hands peror William. Apart from such inciwith the others. The people, who looked dents, however, the 'customary quiet of a on as the carriages drove off, uncovere London Sunday was not disturbed. their heads, and Emperor William and the Alarming Reports From Princesses. Prince of Wales acknowledged the courtesy by raising their hats. No cheers broke the The most alarming reports of the day came in the form of telegrams from the mournful silence. The crowd in the vicinity of Buckingham Princesses at Osborne House. The coming of Emperor William and the news that King Leopold was about starting for when the Emperor and the Prince of Wales

London inspired fears that death was at hand. On the other hand the fact that entered the grounds. the Prince of Wales was able to leave At 10 p.m. the Prince of Wales began a decided to start for Osborne this (Monday) with Sir Francis Knollys attending, several hundred people were there to greet him. morning. Orders were given that a royal yacht should be kept in waiting to convey But there was no demonstration beyond them to the Isle of Wight. respectful lifting of hats. The Earl of During the day the members of the diplo-matic corps and other notable persons entered their names in the visitors' book don and the Earl of Pembroke received the Prince. When they enquired re the Queen's condition, he replied: "You at Buckingham Palace.

Osborne House had an encouraging effect. Prince Greeted Solemnly. When the Prince arrived from Osbonne at Victoria Station, London, at 4 o'clock,

see they have let me come away." The rumors that the Marquis of Salis The Government had arranged to send bury and the Archbishop of Canterbury the fast cruiser Minerva to bring Emperor had been summoned to Osborne House were William, but he embarked on a mail packet for England before he learned of the plans, being accompanied by the Duke of Con-In churches of all denominations prayer were offered at the morning services, and naught. The steamer had a rough passage, and, on entering Sheerness harbor, she in most of them the latest bullefin regard- ed before morning. went by the warship without any ceremoning the Queen's condition was read. Admiral Kennedy and Count Von The chief rabbi of the synagogue request Mirbach of the German Embassy received ed special prayers.

cerned, the extreme weakness causes alabout Charing Cross station. The crowd dition of whose health is a cause of Consternation at Cape Town. Boad Crowded With People. Cape Town, Jan. 20.-The news of Queen Victoria's illness caused consternation in difficulty has been experienced in adminincluded not only the usual hangers on, but many fashionable people, and hund-by God's help Her Majesty's recovery may important engagements to come to the WAITING FOR THE END. During the afternoon the long, hilly road Cowes, Jan. 21.-(4 a.m.)-No official bui- deathbed of his grandmother, to the palace grounds was crowded with und- by God's help Her Majesty's recovery may staff attended service this morning in the appears quite unable to masticate. To people, particularly reds of Germans, anxious to see the Em- be letin has been issued since midnight Doubte "This," says The Daily Mail, "is calcuperor on his first appearance in London for years. The throng became so large that the railroad authorities erected wooden berriers, and a hundred of the tallest police when there is little hope of recovery, beginlated to endear his name to every English-Cathedral, where prayers were offered for Her Majesty's recovery. where prayers were offered for spells of unconsciousness thru which she patches of color. The local gentry, after has been passing, altho it is almost impos-sible to distinguish these from the insidi-ous encroachments of paralysis. LATEST FROM OSBORNE. Special Prayers Offered. barriers, and a hundred of the tartest porce when there is when there is solution as to all appear-of the metropolitan force, with squads of ning: "Forasmuch as to all appear-mounted men, lined up the people on the ance the time of her dissolution draweth letted at the lodge gates, waiting in in-Nobody Slept in the Royal House In nearly all the city churches last night sad reference was made to the serious ill-For more than a week the court officials gram, and these were legion. Hundreds of streets, forming a lane for two blocks to near." tense excitement to convey the news mo-mentarily expected that the Queen has Last Night and Anxiety ness of Her Majesty, and special prayers have had hard work to keep Her Majesty from sleeping at the wrong time. The last time she drove out the villagers were with telegrams asking for the latest news. YOUNG ROTHSCHILD A FIGHTER is General, that the hand of death may be stayed were reathed her last. Cowes, Isle of Wight, Jan. 21 .- (8.45 s.m.) offered by the clergy and her faithful and CROSSING THE BAR. London Jan. 21.-(3 a.m.)-The Press As-WHIPPED COUNT DE LUBERSAC ciation has received the following de- the Queen lives until Tuesday she will sur- at the opening of or during the service. STRATHCONAS SAILED FOR HOME. prise her doctors, who have been fearing Cowes, Jan. 21.-(2.10 a.m.)-The Queen that she will not be able to survive beyond London, Jan. 21.-Mr. Tweed, the sculp-CAPE TOWN, Jan. 20.-The British steamer Lake Erie, is in a comatose condition and is regarded 5 o'clock this morning. The latest bulle- tor, went to Osborne last evening, in or-Captain Jones, sailed for Canada to-day carrying 400 of The Much-Heralded Duel Took Place Yesterday at Boulogne sur tin, with its fateful news, was issued too der to be ready to make the death mask as passing away. Seine-Swords Were the Weapons and the Battle Strathcona's Horse, of the Kingdom. Before the telegraph and telephone, newspapers and extras came into use it was the custom to send out trumpet-WHEN THE INEVITABLE COMES Was of a Furious Character. CHINESE WANT NOTE MODIFIED. Paris, Jan. 20.-The long-expected duel Baron Robert De Rothschild were at the HAZING IS TO BE ABOLISHED ers and criers to announce the news, This between the Count de Lubersac and Barou same college. They quarrelled one day in antiquated custom will be observed at the Robert De Rothschild was fought with regard to a tennis court, which was occupi Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang The new King will at once meet a num- Earl Roberts and Mr. Brodrick Said Reyal Exchange in London. in Presenting it Raised Several Objections and Asked for swords at 11 o'clock this morning on Baron ed by Rothschild, and which Count De Constitutionally the Monarch of Eng-Edmond De Rothschild's estate at Boulogne Lubersac wanted. During the quarrel Luto Have Had a Tilt Over the ber of his Privy Councillors. The Privy Ccuncil numbers about 150 men, including all of the royal dukes, the ministry and land Never Dies-Prince Imsur Seine. The carriages with the princi- bersac called his adversary "Sale Juli" a Meeting. West Point Cadets of All Four Classes Paris, Jan. 19 .- A despatch to the Havas pals, seconds, doctors and a few friends ar- ("Dirty Jew"). Ill-feeling was revived after Red Tape Methods. mediately Becomes King. Agency from Pekin says Prince Ching and pais, seconds, doctors and a rew friends are (Lary set), interaction attribut-rived there from Paris shortly before 11. Count De Lubersac's seconds were M. ed to Baron Robert De Rothschild respect Sohege and Count De Laborde, and those ing Count De Lubersac, which was repeated Met and Decided to Do Away eminent nobles. Not all of the council will LA Hung Chang, in handing the foreign The King will then make his first public FIELD MARSHAL WANTS REFORMS. With the Barbarity. Ministers the signed decree, presented ob-AN OATH THAT MUST BE TAKEN. jections to its articles, and asked for anaddress as sovereign. This will be prepared by some of the ablest men in the ministry, of Baron De Rothschild were Baron Leonio to the latter soon after his admission to other meeting to discuss modifications. and Viscount De Bondy. The duel began at the Jockey Club. The Count then wrote 11.10, and lasted ten minutes, when Count a letter, in which he announced hinself SUPERINTENDENT MILLS NOTIFIED. An Imposing Ceremony That Will De Lubersac received a lunge, perforating his arm at the elbow, to the armpit. The henor, altho, as he expressed it, "You know Be Most Trying Upon All Persons Concerned. how you and your people inspire me with duel was then stopped. They Fought for Blood. Both the Count and the Baron fought Baron Robert De Rothschild sent as his London, Jan. 20 .- What will happen when the Queen dies? What sort of King will most determinedly. Neither flinched, and seconds MM. De Saint Alary and De the Prince of Wales make? neither showed the slightest desire to spare Nufliez to Count De Lubersac, who ap-Two questions of momentous the other. Sixteen engagements took place, pcinted Count De Dion and Count Boni De terest. In England the monarch legally never all of a desperate character. The comba- Castellane as his seconds. tants attacked each other furiously. The Because He Was a Boy. sleeves of their shirts were literally torn to Baron Robert De Rothschild's seconds the reigning sovereign the sovereignty pleces by the points of their swords, as the stated in a letter, subsequently published, passes to his successor. No ceremony nor duellists repeatedly lunged at each other. that their efforts to secure an encounter installation is required, the successor be coming monarch by the act of the law itself. When the Queen dies the Prince of Wales and their seconds were obliged to separate De Lubersac's seconds to allow the duel to take place when they discovered that Baron De Rothschild was still a minor. Letters of Baron Robert to his seconds The Prince of Wales will be notified of The Sixteenth Onslaught. At the 16th onslaught Baron De Rothschild lunged at the Count, who tried to and to the Count added fuel to the flames, his accession to the throne, no matter what at 221 Suck the short, and y and parry, but failed, and the Baron's sword and the Count announced his purpose to again send his seconds when the Baron The Prince will take the oath of King of and issued at the armpit. Spectators has should attain his majority. He also wrote the United Kingdom of Great Britain and to Baron Robert's cousin, Baron Edouard Well-known physicians, Doctors Berger and Pirrier, examined the wound. They de-Rothschild, stating that, as the son of the Rothschild, stating that so the son of the Rothschild, son of Rothschild, son of Rothschild, stating that so the son of the Rothschild, son of Roths Firrier, examined the would. They de Rothschild, stating that, as the son of the Many of the highest officers in the Cabi-clared the Count's life was not in danger, head of the Rothschild family, he should but that it was impossible to continue the hold him responsible and should insult him borne or near at hand will attend to the duel. Count De Lubersac was then driven at their first meeting. formalities of making the new King. back to Paris. Baron De Rothschild is still performing military service with the 54th Regiment of back to Paris Infantry, in garrison at Complegne. He April 12 of last year, in which the latter bishop of Canterbury, in one of the private few words, said that they would all go back to the House of Representatives with the firm belief that in spirit and letter the westerly winds; fair and mild, folaged 64 years. Funeral Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock to St. Michael's Church, thence to St. Michael's Cemetery. only attained his majority yesterday, and was slightly wounded in the forearm in apartments of the Castle. Lord Halsbury will formally notify the lost no time in settling his account with the first bout. the first both. Count De Lubersac. Brought About by Boys' Quarrel. The Rothschild-Lubersac incident, which brought out a remarkable crop of duels, had the first both. Count De Lubersac a few days previously fought with and wounded M. Michel Ephrussi, and a third duel, arising from the same controversy, was fought between THE OATH. Count De Lubersac a few days previously Prince of the death of the Queen and of agreement would be steadfastly adhered lowed by colder at night. Michael's Cemetery. DWIGHT-On Sunday, Jan. 20, Charles P. Dwight, assistant general manager (Freat, and will have resultant pensions. to by the cadets, who made it voluntarily. Georgian Bay-Westerly and northwesterly winds; fair and mild, followed by Dwight, assistant general manager Great Northwestern Telegraph Company. Funeral 2.30 p.m. Monday. Private. Lord Chancellor: Is Your Majesty will-Oxydoner Cures Stomach Troubles.An Old Citizen Dead.colder, with local snow falls to-night.A Charge of Theft Laid.The death occurred yesterday morning of
Mr. Richard Heather, at his late residence.
Mr. Heather, who had reached the advanced age of 82 years, wascolder, with local snow falls to-night.
Upper St. Lawrence and Ottawa Valley...
Mider; light local snow or sleet, but mostly fair.
Lower St. Lawrence-Milder; light local snow or sleet. its origin in a boys' quarrel, dating from Count De Dion and M. De Saint Alary, in An Old Citizen Dead. colder, with local snow falls to-night. the time when Count De Lubersac and which the latter was wounded. ing to take the oath? DODD-At West Hill, on Saturday, Janu ary 19th, Robert Dodd, aged 65 years. The King: I am. ary 19th, Robert Dodd, aged 65 years. The funeral will take place from his late residence, West Hill, on Monday, January 21st, at 3 o'clock p.m., pro-ceeding to St. Margaret's Church Ceme-Lord Chancellor: Will you solemnly WAS SUCH THE WILL ! To-Day's Program. promise and swear to govern the people meeting Military Institute, 8 p.m. meeting tanners' section, Boar 3.80 p.m. of this United Kingdom of Great Bri-DOYLE—At the General Hospital, on Fri-day, Jan. 18, Vallentyne Doyle, aged 73 years. Funeral from the undertaking establish ment of Fred W. Matthews, 455 Queen-street west, on Monday, the 21st inst, at 2 p.m., to St. Michael's Cemetery. DOWZER—On Sunday, Jan. 20, 1901, Mary Funeral private, on Thesday, 22nd, at 3.30, from the residence of her brother-in-law, 370 Parliament-street. tain and Ireland and the dominions Armstrong Black on "Burns," St. s Church, 8 p.m. l meeting Canadian Society of Au-ational Club, 4.30 p.m. De Lury, B.A., on "Newton," Varthereto belonging, according to the statutes in Parliament agreed on and the respective laws and customs of the same? The King: I solemnly promise so to do. .m. Fruit Merchants' Association smok-erance Hall, 8 p.m. sh Evening," Zion Congregationa! Lord Chancellor: Will you to your power cause law and justice in mercy to be executed in all your judgments? Dowser of Carnew, Ireland. Funeral private, on Tuesday, 22nd, at 3.30, from the residence of her brother-in-law, 370 Parliament-street. The King: I will. 8 p.m. of England Sunday School Associa Lord Chancellor: Will you to the uto Difficulty Church, 8 p.m. an Manufacturers' Association Exe scusses civil legislation, 2 p.m. o Opera House, "The Night Before Hudson, N. Y., Jan. 19.—Dennis Kelly, aged 70 years, a resident of Valatic: was found frozen to death last night. He had wandered from home while in ill health and only partly clad. Baptist Church. Only last October he and most of your power maintain the laws IRWIN-On Sunday, Jan. 20, Lorne Llewel-lyn Irwin, omy child of William A. and Louisa G. Irwin, and grandson of J. C. Hoare, aged 9 months. Funeral on Monday, 21st, at 2 p.m. Mignonette. No more pleasing combination than this old fashioned bloom with carnations. See them displayed at Dunlop's, 5 King West and 445 Yonge-street. of God, the true profession of the Gospel and the Protestant Reformed religion hristmas," 8 p.m. Princess. "Bootle's Baby," 8 p.m. Shea's Theatre, vaudeville, 2 and 8 p.m McEwen, the hypnotist, at Association established by law, and will you mainlifetime of Mary McFarlane. Funeral on Monday, 21st, at 2 p.m. MUNRO-At her late residence, 186 John-street, Toronto, on Sundar, Jan. 20, Jane Munro, daughter of the late Donald Mun-ro of Pickering, aged 54 years. Funeral from the above address on Tuesday, 22nd, at 10 a.m. Interment in English Church Cemetery, Scarboro. ROSE-At his residence, No. 2 Queen's Park, on Saturday, the 10th inst., the Hon. John Edward Rose, one of the judges of the High Court of Justice. Funeral private, on Monday, at 2.30 p.m. SWYTH On Sundar Jan. 20 1901 at the tain and preserve inviolably the settle-Patents. - Fetherstonhaugh & Co., King-street West, Toronto, also Montreal, Ottawa and Washington. ment of the United Church of England Pember's Turkish Baths, 127 Yonge-st "Clan Mackenzie" Scotch Whisky. Best for grippe. All dealers sell it. ed7 Pember's Turkish Baths, excellent sleeping accommodation, 127 Yonge, and Ireland and the doctrine, worship, STEAMSHIP MOVEMENTS. discipline and government thereof as by Cook's Turkish & steam baths, 204 King Americans in the Lead. Cook's Turkish Baths, 204 King W. law established within England and Americans have set the new century style for hats-stiff felt Derbys or the soft Al-pine. Dineen has received these advance shipments, and they are now being exhibit-ed and on sale in his showrooms. Call and see them Cure a Cold in a Few Hours. Everybody should have accident and gickness insurance. Walter H. Bilght, City to Agent, Ocean Accident and Guarantee Cor-poration. "Phone 2770. 138 Ireland and the territories thereunto belonging, and will you preserve unto the Without any disagreeable after-effects. Dr Evans' Laxative Grip Capsules, 25c a box Bingham's Pharmacy, 100 Yonge-street. ed bishops and clergy of England and Ireland and to the churches there committed to their charge all such rights Oxydoner Cures Rheumatism. E.R.Case, patents procured, TempleBldg SMYTH-On Sunday, Jan. 20, 1901, at the residence of her son-fn-law, J. B. Suther-land, 1 McMillan-street, Jane, beloved. Commerce Building, Toronto. and privileges as by law do or shall ap-Homer Watson (painting) and Harlow White (water color), both first class ex-amples great bargains. -0.J.Townsend & Ca. Have lunch in new dining-room.-Headache Cured While You Wait. pertain to them or any of them? For chapped hands and rough skin, use Lanoline Skin Food, softens and whitens the skin and prayents wrinkles. Bingham's for a box of 12. Bingham's Pharmacy, 100/Yonge-street. ed7 residence of her son-haw, J. B. Suther-land, 1 McMillan-street, Jane, beloved wife of James Smyth, in her 75th year. Funeral Tuesday, Jan 22, at 2.30 p.m. Oxydener Cures Paralysis. The King: All this I promise to do. NEWS DISSEMINATED. Oxydoner Cures All Diseases. The news will be sent then to all parts a Source of Additional Alarm-An Empire is Prostrated by the Critical Condition of Her Majesty-Dissolution is but a Matter of Hours. FAMILY IN THE BEDCHAMBER.

Cowes, Jan. 21.-(3 a.m.)-The worst is expected at any moment, and the members of the Royal family are now assembled in the Queen's bedchamber.

STILL LIVING AT 3.45 A.M.

Cowes, Jan. 21. (3.45 a.m.)-The Queen still lives and there is no change in her condition.

NO RALLY AT 5 A.M.

Cowes, Jan. 21.-(5.15 a.m.)-The members of the Royal family are still gathered in a room adjoining the Queen's illness the text of an attack upon but it is asserted that Her Majesty's con-in the little church at Whippingham, Queen's bedchamber. Her Majesty is unconscious, and the the South African policy of the British end is expected at any moment.

was critical.

PASSED A RESTLESS NIGHT. Osborne, Isle of Wight, Jan. 20.-(8.30 ANOTHER GRAVE MATTER. a.m.)-The following bulletin has been post- The Prince of Wales is Seriously conversation by telephone with Osborne 'ed: The Queen passed a somewhat rest-House, which lasted nearly an hour. As a less night; there has been no material Indisposed-Very Tired and Exhausted.

result of this the Emperor and the Prince change in her condition since last reported. of Queen Victoria's life another grave por-(Signed) Powell, Reid. tent arises, namely, the serious indisposisymptoms continue to cause anxiety. CONDITION IS CRITICAL. he would leave London at 8 o'clock this New York, Jan. 20.-At 7 p.m, there was grave reason to believe that her condition morning if possible. The Prince of Wales is spending the night at Mariborough House and Emperor William at Buckingham Palace. WORST IS FEARED. Cowes, Isle of Wight, Jan. 20.-(11 p.m.)

The Associated Press learns that a very Not as Emperor, But as Grandson. serious change has occurred in the condi- London, Jan. 21 .- According to The Daily tion of Queen Victoria. The worst is fear-ed before morning.

House not as Emperor, but as grandson, Osborne House, Isle of Wight, Jan. 21.-(2.15 a.m.)-The official bulletin issued at an my grandmother's eldest grandson, and

So far as her immediate condition is contened itself upon her.

THE GUTTA PERCHA & RUBBER M'F'G. CO

ONE CENT

The Gathering of the Family.

and the Duke of York are expected to ar-

Emperor William, the Prince of

FERFORATED

RUBBER MATS

THE PHYSICIANS AT OSBORNE HOPE FOR RALLY THIS MORNING

WAITING FOR THE INEVITABLE TO COME In Such Case the Probabilities are That Her Majesty Will Live

Royal Palace--Severe Drowsiness.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Jan. 21 .- (2 a.m.)- astounded to hear the clear treble of the ler Majesty's physicians hope that she son of the Princess of Battenburg trilling may rally by 5 o'clock this morning. If out popular songs from the royal carriages she does it is expected that she will live The explanation is that he was singing to thru the day. If she does not, all hope keep his grandmother awake. Now and will be abandoned. Immediately on the again she dozed, wakening to tell the boy late to become common knowledge here- occurence of the Queen's collapse, about 10 to continue his chant, which, to the initiatabouts. The exclusive information of the last evening, a message was sent to Lon- ed onlooker, contained a world of pathos.

Associated Press, obtained an hour earlier, don, summoning the Prince of Wales and is still less a matter of public knowledge. Emperor William. Prince is Sick. The Prince of Wales was in such a con- rive at Osborne House to-day (Mon-

THE FEELING IN DUBLIN. Painful Sensation Caused-Only One Nationalist Paper Shows Anything Disrespectful.

Dublin, Jan. 21,-A deep and very painful sensation followed the receipt of the Nationalists have been generous in their expressions of sympathy, and the Nation- were hurriedly made to provide special alist press, on the whole, are respectfully silent. Only The Dublin Evening Telegraphed Cardinal Vaughan in London to The Associated Press learns that the par-London, Jan. 21 .- In the closing moments feeling of sorrow which all Christendom side of which appears to have ost all greater breavement was uppermost in all New York, Jan. 20,-Official bulletin; 4.30 tion of the Prince of Wales. So worrted, shared with England regarding the illness nerve and muscular power. the could do was to promise that he would leave London at 8 o'clock this the catholic Church to increase in the United Kingdom, will leave an indelible trace upon all Christian hearts."

THE POPE'S SORROW.

A Telegram From His Holiness to, Cardinal Vanghan Expresses Most Sincere Feelings. Rome, Jan. 21.-The Pope yesterday tele- sons in extremis.

LONDON PAPERS UNRESTRAINED. Comment Upon the Life of the Queen as Tho Her Majesty Was

No More. London, Jan. 21.—This morning's news papers have thorwn off all pretence of any bis interview with the Queen insted but a possibility of recovery, and sadly admit his interview with the Queen lasted but a ment was practically King of England, possibility of recovery, and sadly admit his interview with the Queen lasted but a the mother's wishes. It was rum r-that the end may come at any moment. Hence the exact nature of ed that the Queen wanted the Emperor to Therefore, they proceed to review Her Majesty's long illustrious reign, as the and it is the royal wish that the public did not wish to receive him in ner present the Emperor and escorted him to a special midnight says that the Queen's condition my mother is unable from illness to hasten she were no more, and to dilate upon the should not be informed of the existence of The following notice was read in, the condition. Apparently, in her lucid mo-Roman Catholic pro-Cathedral at Kensingments, she believed she would be able to walting-room late this evening became more serious, to her bedside." wonderful influence she wielded in Euro. paralysis. Crowd Waited for the Kaiser. Two hours before His Majesty's train was due in London, people began to gather shout Charing Cross station. The crowd dition of whose health is a cause of ton: "The prayers of the congregation are asked for Her Majesty, the Queen, the com-dition of whose health is a cause of The Extreme Weakness. ccuquer the dread disease which had fas-dition of health that it was utterly im- day). The only additional royal personage possible for fim to leave London at that who arrived yesterday was the Priacess hour, but it is hoped he will start for Os- Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein, who arcivborne House at 8 this morning, ed during the afternoon. Unexpected Collapse. A Touching Scene. A collapse, or what the physicians feared Yesterday at Osborne, hedged around alarming news from Osborne House. The was a collapse, occurred unexpectedly with intense secrecy, began with a touchabout 10 o'clock last night. Arrangements ing scene. Amid the bright sunshine, in marked contrast to the gloomy skie

Keenly sensitive of her affliction and appearance, the Queen has absolutely refused to see anyone but her nurses and doctors.

telephone and telegraphic facilities. Saturday, there drove out from the Palace grounds a carriage containing wreaths for Paralysis Increases. dition is chiefly due to a severe sinking about ten miles' ride from the royal respell and an increase of the paralytic sympdence. Then followed carriages containing the Princess of Wales, the Princess of Battenburg, Princess Louise and others, Artificial Methods Adopted. It is understood that the physicians have dressed in the deepest black. The face of resorted to artificial methods to prolong the Princess of Wales showed signs of life such as are used only in cases of per- the anxiety she was undergoing. The anrial service for Prince Henry always a sad occasion, was more than express to the British Royal Family the alysis is chiefly evident in the face, one usually sorrowful, for the shadow of a still minds. The Princess of Wales and the p.m., London time: Queen alive, but thred and exhausted was he last evening of Queen Victoria, adding: "The liberal At 6 o'clock last evening the malady had Princess of Battenburg sobbed bitterly, and that he could not respond immediately to reign of the Queen, which has permitted not reached the vital organs, altho it had there was scarcely one of those royal heads the summons from Osborne House. The the Catholic Church to increase in the naturally caused an almost total loss of bent in prayer that did not shake with a Departure of the Prince. shortly after 12 o'clock to meet Emperor Her Majesty Keenly Sensitive. William was quietly accomplished. The Queen had been informed of the Kaiser's coming, and had signified her desire that the Prince should go to meet him. Rather postpone his visit to Osborne House, as she

のない	MORDEN HANDS OVER THE WILL.	Annual
	Verdict of the Jury in the Sifton	Annual of Trade,
素	· Case Takes Away From Him a	Rev. A
	Snug Income.	Andrew's
	London, Ont., Jan. 19 On Thursday last	Annual thors, Na
	Edgar Morden formally handed over to John	A. T. J
	James Sifton the estate of the late Joseph	sity, 4 p Retail
	H. Sifton, which Morden had been admin- istering as executor under the will, claim-	er, Temi "Scotti
	ed by him to be the genuine will, of J. H.	Church, Sifton, but which was declared by the jury this week to be a forgery. Had the will	Church tion, Ho
	heen succestred and Morden lett in charge	Canadi cutive di
	of the estate, his revenue as executor and administrator would have brought him in	Toront
1	administrator would have brought using the	Christma

n. 19.		At.	F	rom.
pania
n. 20.				1
ultaine	New	York		Havre	:
nto	New	York	·····	. Hull
ia adic	Queen	istowi	Net	V LOFK
adelphia	Liver	pool .	Ne	w York
eman	Liver	pool		Boston

