FOSTER'S FROST

New Brunswick Election Situation Unchanged—Government 42 to 4.

St. John, Feb. 21.—Fuller election returns received today show no alteration in the situation. Messrs. Glasier and Hazen (Opposition) are elected in Sunbury county. Mr. Hazen's majority is placed at 10. This leaves 4 Opposition to 42 Government.

SEEKING CLEMENCY

Efforts to Have the Death Sentence of the Ste. Scholastic Murderers Commuted.

Montreal, Feb. 21.—The utmost efforts are being made to secure a commutation of the death sentence passed upon Cordelia Viau and Sam Parslow, sentenced to be hanged on March 10 at Ste Scholastique. So far as Cordelia Viau is concerned, her aged mother has written upon a large number of people to intercede in favor of her daughter, including Archbishop Bruchesi. Mr. J. D. Ledue, her counsel, has forwarded a petition to the minister of justice, signed by 500 women of the district of Terrebonne. Cordelia Viau herself has written to the minister of justice pleading for clemency, as well as to Lady Minto. She has received a letter from her excellency, promising to take an interest in her case.

As to Parslow, the recommendation is backed up by a petition signed by hundreds of the citizens of the district of Terrebonne, and his counsel, Mr. J. A. C. Ethier, M.P., is leaving nothing undone to secure a commutation of sentence.

Finnish Rights to Home Rule Trampled On.

Indignant Protest Against the Czar's Manifesto.

Canada Credited With Using Borrowed Money Wisely.

Franchise Reform for Rhodesia—Activity Among French Monarchists—Unexpected Arrival of the Duc D'Orleans in Brussels.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 21.—An imperial manifesto has been issued depriving the Finnish parliament and the senate of the exclusive right hitherto enjoyed of discussing measures designed to bring Finland into closer conformity with the rest of the empire. A dispatch from Stockholm says: The czar's manifesto relating to the Finnish parliament and senate has excited intense indignation throughout Scandinavia. All the newspapers protest against the Russian coercion, and declare that Finnish rights and rule have been practically destroyed. All Finnish affairs, it is asserted, will be settled at St. Petersburg. The Aftenbladt says: It is high time that Sweden and Norway should cease to quarrel, and should prepare to defend their liberties against the Russian giant.

MONEY WELL USED.
London, Feb. 21.—The Financial News, commenting on the Dominion debt, says that if ever money was carefully used by any state Canada's borrowed capital has been.

In answer to a question in the House of Commons, put by Mr. James Francis Hogan, anti-Parnellite, respecting a Frenchman's purchase of an important strategic position at the gateway of Canada and the alleged evictions of the previous occupants, the government leader, Mr. A. J. Bonafant, first lord of the treasury, said the island of Anticosti had been purchased by Mr. Menier, but he had no official information regarding the evictions. A report on the situation had been asked for, but had not yet arrived.

THE CONNAUGHTS AT OMDURMAN.

The Duke and Duchess of Connaught have arrived at Omdurman, and met with an enthusiastic welcome from the natives. The duke reviewed 9,000 troops, commanded by the sirdar, Gen. Lord Kitchener of Khartoum, and afterwards held a levee, at which the officers and notabilities were present. The duke and duchess visited the tomb of the mahdi. The Khalifa's house and gardens, and the palace at Khartoum. There was a display of fireworks during the evening.

RUSH FOR CIRCUS SHARES.

The application for shares of the company floated by the proprietors of Barnum & Bailey's circus appears to have exceeded expectations. Among the applicants for shares were members of the royalty and nobility. It is impossible, as yet, to ascertain, even approximately, the amount of the subscription, but Mr. George Starr, who is one of Mr. Barnum's associates in the directorate of the new company, said last night that it looks as though the entire capital, £400,000, will be over subscribed six or seven times. The shares are already quoted at 30s. 6d.

FRENCH MONARCHIST ACTIVITY.

Paris, Feb. 21.—The Duke of Orleans has unexpectedly arrived at Brussels. It is said that he considers the moment opportune for a monarchist attempt in France. Three millions of the duke's portraits, decorated with the tri-color, have arrived for distribution.

JEW-BAITERS HEAVILY PUNISHED.

Max Regis, the former mayor of Algiers, notorious Jew-baiter and editor of the Anti-Juif, has been sentenced at Grenoble in default to three years' imprisonment, and to pay a fine of a fortnight's wages for "press offenses and glorifying murder." At the same time, the managing director of the paper, Philippe, has been sentenced to eight years' imprisonment, and to pay a fine of 100 francs, on the same charge.

REFORM IN RHODESIA.

London, Feb. 21.—The first general election under the amended constitution of the British South Africa Company, which gives the right of popular representation in the council of Rhodesia, is expected to take place in May. Mr. Rhodes, who has settled the Cape franchise on its present basis, has arranged the franchise for Rhodesia on much the same lines. Every person having a house of the annual value of £75 is entitled to record his vote, and every person in receipt of £30 a year in wages has the same political privilege. As the native laborer obtains £7 a week for his services, this virtually means manhood suffrage. No one can be entered on the list of voters unless he can sign his name and state in writing his occupation and place of residence. This excludes a certain number of natives from the exercise of the franchise, but practically he has given the franchise to everyone save "the loafer and the ignorant barbarian."

MAUD WANTS THE MONEY.

London, Feb. 21.—Maud Richardson, who was the associate of "Harry the Valet," the thief who stole the Duchess of Sutherland's jewels, wants her reward. She has threatened the duchess with legal prosecution to recover $5,000 for giving the information leading to the recovery of a portion of the stolen valuables. The duchess denies that Maud offered any reward whatever, but Maud Richardson replies that the Paris police offered £20,000 for the return of all the plunder. She bases her claim for $5,000 on the proportionate value of the property returned.

TECK IN BAD FORM.

The mental malady of the Duke of Teck, father of the Duchess of York, shows no indications of improvement. His condition is so grave he is watched night and day. The Duchess of York sometimes visits White Lodge to see her father. Each visit, however, so upsets her, that the Queen has advised her to discontinue them.

CRIMPING.

Replying to Mr. Joseph Havelock Wilson, Radical member for Middleborough, and secretary of the National Seamen's Union, who asked a question in the House of Commons regarding the alleged interference with seamen at New York upon the part of crimps, the president of the board of trade, Mr. C. T. Ritchie, said he was conferring with the British foreign office, and with the British consul-general at New York.

CABLE NOTES.

A yawning deficit of $25,000,000 pesetas will appear in the next Spanish budget.

King Oscar of Sweden has resumed the reins of government, his health having been recovered.

The Cretan chambers opened on Monday by Prince George, the high commissioner of the powers, who received a warm greeting.

The collapse has just been announced of Alex. Muir & Sons, the noted brewers and distillers of Alloa. Liabilities, $306,075; assets, $104,750.

An English company has proposed to Prince George of Crete a plan for uniting the principal towns in the island by railway. It will likely be approved.

At a stamp auction sale in London Monday the sixpence Canada, perforated, sold at 14s; the New Brunswick Cornhill at 30s; and the Nova Scotia killing violet, at 28s.

NOT ANDREE'S BODY.

Christiania, Feb. 21.—The reported finding of the bodies of Andree and his companions on the coast of Northern Siberia seems after all to be a canard.

The Finnish professor of the Christiania University has received a telegram from a friend in Krasnojarsk, who says that after thoroughly investigating the source of information he is convinced that there is no truth in the report.

The polar expedition of Prof. Nathorst, who will go in search of the Andree party early in June, meets with popular approval. Subscriptions are pouring in from all parts of Norway and Sweden, and already the amount contributed exceeds $80,000.

OMAN'S SULTAN COMES TO TIME

Grant of a Coaling Station to the French Revoked.

In View of a Possible Bombardment of Muscat by British Warships.

Breezy Session of the Spanish Cortes—Proposal to Execute the Generals Engaged in the Cuban War.

Bombay, Feb. 21.—The Sultan of Oman has revoked the grant of a coaling station to the French, under the British admiral's threats of a bombardment, and the fact that the British warships Eclipse, Sphinx and Red Breast are lying off the port of Muscat.

The sultan has issued a proclamation to the foregoing effect, and he will make a similar announcement in open durbar. The French consul has entered a protest.

OMAN IS CONSIDERED TO BE UNDER BRITISH PROTECTION, AND THE SULTAN HAS BEEN RECEIVING A SUBSIDY FROM GREAT BRITAIN.

Madrid, Feb. 21.—The cortes reassembled, and the galleries in both chambers were thronged with an expectant crowd. The senate was very full, hardly a single general being absent. Senator Montero Rios, president of the senate, in opening the proceedings pronounced an eulogy upon M. Faure, and a resolution of condolence with France was unanimously adopted.

Senator Sagasta, the premier, proposed to refer the bill providing for the cessation of the Philippines to the United States to a special committee, but this the Conservatives protested against, declaring that the bill should be discussed and Senator Sagasta withdrew his proposal.

GENERAL UPROAR.

Count D'Almenas then brought up the question of the conduct of the general engaged in the war with Cuba, declaring that Gen. Primo de Rivera, Gen. Weyler, Gen. Blanco, Admiral Cervera and Gen. Linares had proved failures. This declaration elicited much applause from the public galleries, in consequence of which several of the spectators were expelled from the chamber. Observing that he would deal with the shameful capitulation of Santiago, Count D'Almenas asked the house whether he should proceed, and was answered with cries of "Yes, yes," and "No," and a general uproar ensued.
