A Great Exhibition

Interesting Colonial Displays at the Earlscourt Show.

Successful Launching of the Queen's New Yacht.

Foreign Goods to Enter the Sudan Free of Duty—Pacific Cable Project Brought Up in the British House.

London, May 10.—The Greater Britain Exhibition at Earlscourt aspires to depict the glories and resources and to give a living picture of the principal colonies. The idea has been taken up enthusiastically, and the colonies have sent an abundance of materials for display. Among the amusements is the largest water chute in the world, which throws the Chicago and Coney Island exhibits completely in the shade. There are a number of South African natives, lions and lion hunters, a son of Chief Lo Ben Roodoos and a real Bulawayo coach in the show.

THE QUEEN'S NEW YACHT.

The Duchess of York, accompanied by the Duke of Connaught and Mr. Geo. J. Goschen, first lord of the admiralty, and others, launched the new royal yacht Victoria and Albert at Pembroke yesterday afternoon. After the usual prayers, the duchess severed a cord, and the yacht glided into the water amidst vociferous cheering. The scene attending the launching was one of the gayest imaginable. The docks, the neighboring buildings and the ships in the harbors were crowded with people. The conference was very naval and military officers and members of the civil government uniformed or in their robes of office. There was an enormous concourse of people in and about the yards, and the greatest enthusiasm was manifested.

TO OPEN THE SOUDAN.

The Cairo correspondent of the Times says: General Lord Kitchener intends to open the Sudan to all traders on the completion of the railroad to Khartoum and foreign goods will be admitted free of duty.

ABSCONDED.

A receiver was appointed in the bankruptcy court yesterday for R. A. Hashim, a shipper, whose liabilities are $125,000. According to a statement made in court, Hashim absconded, sailing for Europe on April 8, having previously drawn from the bank upwards of $15,000, half of which he remitted to his wife in New York, to whom he also transferred his estate at Beyrout, Syria. Hashim's wife is conducting an opera company in the United States, and is herself well known as a singer with an income of from $25,000 to $30,000 per annum. Steps have been taken for the arrest of Hashim.

CRANKS AT THE HAGUE.

An army of cranks is already beginning to arrive with patent schemes to submit to the consideration of the peace conference will be over admitting representatives of the press. England and the United States are in favor of the admission, but the proposal will surely be voted down by the others, under Russian leadership.

IN THE COMMONS.

In the British House of Commons Colonel Secretary Chamberlain said, in answer to a question, that he was unable to make any statement regarding French treaty rights on the Newfoundland coast. The government, he said, had the commission's report under consideration.

Mr. James Francis Hogan asked that, in view of British Columbia's offer to bear one-ninth of the cost of the Pacific cable, the government would reconsider its own proposals and endeavor to bring them in harmony with the wishes of the Canadian and Australian Governments. Mr. Chamberlain said that he had not yet received the replies of the colonial governments, but if representations were made on their behalf with reference to Great Britain's offer, they would be carefully considered.
