The story told by the Italian prisoners is a remarkable one, and it is understood that other charges may be preferred against the accused man,

In their confession the prisoners in question state that Seperanzo, who was convicted at the recent assizes of shooting at Constables Knight and Madigan and sentenced to twelve years' imprisonment therefor, had nothing to do with the Eno robbery; but they allege that the persons who actually committed the robbery were boarding at the establishment of the accused man, Moore, before the robbery and after, and they go so far as to say that Moore was the instigator ote for the Radial Bill, which slap at provincial rights. This statement is confirmed by one of the constables, who saw a suit of clothes hanging in Moore's store at Byng Inlet when one of the accused men was let when one of the accused men was arrested, and that subsequently this very suit was found at Guelph in the boarding house, where the little Italian, Pezzano, now in jail here, was recaptured.

The confession of Seperanzo went on to state that the Italian, Moore, declared he would get revenge against Murdock Watts for his action in con nection with an affray which tool place at Byng Inlet, as Watts had prosecuted certain of his countrymen. Seperanzo stated that Moore had of-fered him $150 if he would go and electric energy to the city it is stipulated that no motor may be run by the city unless the company approves of it.
