Market Notes.

An outstanding feature of the cattle market yesterday was the sale by McDonald & Halligan of two extra choice steers, weighing 1780 lbs. each, at $11.10 per cwt., to the Harris Abattoir Company. The steers were consigned by William Stinson of Gorrie, and were generally as representing the very highest type of well-finished Ontario cattle. Many drovers and commission men who saw them said that they had never seen anything better on the Union Stock Yards market, and so good a judge as Sam Hisey stated to The World last night that he had not seen anything better on the regular stock yards market.

Sam Hisey sold two loads of cattle. He sold six cattle at from $8.25 to $9.75; 12 cows, weighing 1100 lbs. each, at $8.50; 10 heifers, $20 lbs., at $9.80, and shipped a car of steers to country points, weighing 750 lbs., at $7.95. Mr. Hisey quoted hass small run of cattle, coupled with a A small run of cattle, coupled or one of he strongest markets of the season yeserday at the Union Stock Yards. The eceipts were only about 50 cars, containing 475 cattle, 180 calves, 200 hogs and 668 sheep and lambs, and they did not supply the demands of the trade, The last fortnight has been notable for high prices and strong advances, and yesterday's market, like Monday's, made a new high record when the Ontario steers shipped in by W. Stinson of Gorrie, in Huron County, topped all former Canadian prices, selling for $11.10 per cwt., live weight, as they stood. True, there was only a pair of them, and the ordinary prices for best butchers' steers was only steady with Monday's quotations, but the prices were phenomenal, and drovers and commission men agree that there has never been anything like it in the Canadian cattle trade.

The quality of cattle offered yesterday was for the most part excellent, there having been an abundance of dry feed in the hands of the Ontario farmers, much of which was unsaleable on the market, and has been turned to better account in stall-feeding. Reports from all parts of the province indicate that, while the outlook for the grain crop is not encouraging, pasturage is abundant. high prices and strong advances, and or the couraging, pasturage is abundant. Grass-finished cattle will soon begin to come in in larger numbers.

The market on the whole yesterday may be said to have been strong and steady, with a firm tendency.

Wright Bros., Smithfield, drove on the market, unloading 9 hogs, weighing 2000 lbs., and sold them for $11 per cwt. Even in quality, even in weight, even in price, and even in dollars. Zeagman & Suns had charge of the load.

The Bacon Pig.

Greater attention is being given to the pig than for many years past, and now that the people know the price of bacon and how enormously the Germans have benefited by their very large pig population, there is reason to believe that we shall produce much more of our own bacon. Scotland is the smallest pig-keeper of the British Isles, while Ireland stands first. There has long been an idea that pig-keeping does not pay, but when we find that the pig meat can be made at a cost of, 5½c per pound when it is selling at a shilling it is time to point out the mistake.

At Kettering market nine store pigs, nine weeks old, sent by Mr. C. Dunkley brought 41s each.
